Cases were made against 50 merchants last Monday for selling goods on Sunday in Atlanta.

Forty negroes made an effort to lynch their foreman at the Citico furnace limestone quarry in Tennessee the other night, because they were displeased with some of his rules.

The tenth annual and fourth World's Sunday School which was in session at Atlanta for several days last week adjourned last Sunday and will hold its next annual meeting in Denver, Colorado.

Washington, April 29.—At the request of the secretary of state the treasury department today drew four diplomatic settlement warrants for $5,000,000 each in discharge of the treaty obligations of the United States to Spain.

The largest block of marble ever quarried in Georgia was gotten out and sent off this week by the Southern Marble Company in Pickens county to Providence, R. I., to be used in a bank building. The shaft weighs 100,066 pounds.

At Wardner, Idaho, last Saturday a mob from 800 to 1000 seized a train. They killed men and destroyed property. The mine was blown up by big charges of giant powder. The officers were helpless and the miners had things all their own way.

The Reunion of the United States Confederate veterans at Charleston next week will be largely attended. Intended visitors are requested to make engagements for accommodations by wire or by mail in advance so as to avoid the rush and inconvenience which will be sure to occur.

John H. Witsel, a democrat who resides at Blue Ridge, has been appointed census enumerator for the 9th Congressional District. The work of taking the census will begin the first of June, 1900, and Mr. Witsel has the appointing of a small army of enumerators between now and that time.

Members of the Loyal Legion in the district of Columbia are considering whether General Egan, recently removed from his position as commissary general of the army, is a fit person to belong to the organization. At its latest meeting the board of officers considered charges preferred against him, but action was deferred.

Judge Newman is very clever and recommending to the moonshiners convicted in his court and sentenced to terms in jail. He allows them to go ahead and make their crops, but when "laying-by-time" comes they must go to jail and serve out their sentence. They will be kept out of mischief, according to the judicial view, until time to commence picking cotton. This is wise and sensible, if a little novel and unusual. —Enquirer-Sun.

The town boy that mocketh at the boy from the country may sometimes in life have to bow before him and beg for a job for his victuals and clothes. Too many town boys seeketh after fun and thinketh what he doth not know hath been plucked out of the premises, but the country boy considereth himself a fool in many things and seeketh after wisdom and desiroth to be what the world most needs and always proud to honor—a man.—Ex.

A Madrid cable reports that the situation in Cuba is critical and that the Cubans are resolved to take up arms in favor of independence. This alleged news, the Madrid cable says, was brought to that city by passengers arriving by steamer from Cuba. As the Americans are in charge of the island, with cables in operation, our Madrid friends who desire to keep posted should get their news from American sources. News by steamer from Cuba to Spain can not be very fresh, and it is not apt to be reliable.—Ex.

IT'S A SURE GO.

Michigan Millionaires Interest Themselves In the Dahlonega Mining Company.

It really begins to look as though the old maxim of "he who laughs last laughs best" would be practically demonstrated in the case of the Toledo gentlemen who backed their judgment in the ultimate value of the vast gold bearing ore veins, lodes, pockets and chimneys of the Dahlonega, Ga., gold fields.

Last evening Mr. Frank G. Thomson, one of the directors of the Dahlonega Consolidated Gold Mining Co., returned from a week's trip to the company's property, where he accompanied three well known Michigan millionaires, one of them living in St. Clair, another near Pontiac, while the residence of the third Michigan gentleman was not learned by the Courier. So well pleased were these gentlemen with what they saw that they readily invested in about a quarter of a million dollar's worth of stock of the Gold Mining Company.

Last evening a Courier called on Mr. Thomson at the company's main office in the National Union building, and was there shown a check for $40,000 in payment of stock bought by one of the Michigan gentlemen named. Mr. Thomson was in a pleased and enthusiastic frame of mind over the strong new financial additions to the company whose projects he has labored so zealously to build up, and while he spoke enthusiastically over the immediate prospects, he referred with something of regret to the fact that he had been able to interest so few of Toledo capitalists in this Georgia company.

There was a time previous to January 1st, when this stock was advertised in the Courier at 20 cents, with comparatively few takers. Soon after the date named the price was advanced to 25 cents while the sale of the large block of stock just made was on the basis of 30 cents.

On Wednesday next the annual meeting of the stockholders of the company will be held at the general offices in this city, when a contract for a second 60 stamp mill will be awarded to the Edward P. Allis Co. of Milwaukee, this company now being at work building a 60 stamp mill, an order for which was given them something like 30 days ago. This will give the company two new 60 stamp mills of the very latest design and containing every possible improvement known to gold mining. One of these mills will be located at the Yahoola and the other at the Hand mine. These mills are furnished the company under a guaranteed capacity of four tons per stamp per day.

There are at present several small mills located at the various mines of the company. These aggregate 100 stamps. The old mills will be torn down and the stamps and machinery combined in one large 100 stamp mill at the Findley mine. This mill will be fitted up with new concentrating tables, self-feeders, crushers and all modern gold mining machinery, making a mill with a capacity of 200 tons per day.

In addition to the above named improvements, a thoroughly modern chlorination plant will be added, together with a full equipment of labor saving devices. This plant will have a capacity of 35 tons of concentrates per day. The contract for this plant has been decided upon, and at the official meeting in Toledo the formal award will be made. The E. P. Allis people agree to build and place the machinery on board cars in Milwaukee within 40 days from the awarding of the contract.

Mr. Thomson says that the company expects to be mining, milling and chlorinating not less than 680 tons of ore per day, not later than September 1st.

The company has just completed the erection and fitting up of the

WAS ASSAYER AT DAHLONEGA.

Death of Isaac L. Todd at Rome, Georgia.

Rome, Ga., May 1.—(Special.) Isaac L. Todd, aged eighty-four years, died at his home here to night at 7 o'clock. He was born in Carlisle, Pa., in 1815 and went to Dahlonega, Ga., in 1837 as assayer of the United States mint there. He held that position until the mint was discontinued at the breaking out of the civil war. The gold minted there was very yellow and has a "D" stamped on one side. Mr. Todd moved here in 1861 and was a conductor on the Rome railroad for over twenty years. He was a man of high integrity, honored by all who knew him. His wife died fifteen years ago and two sons survive him. Both live here. The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon.

One night last week Chalmus Stow hitched up his team and moved out in the direction of Dalton soon after midnight. Next day it was rumored that he had carried a young lady off to get married and everybody was guessing who it could be. Less than a half dozen parties knew who it was and they endeavored to keep it a secret. But the secret leaked out and the lady proved to be Mrs. Bell Burrell, daughter of W. H. Cook, who departed in company with her little child to some point on the railroad where she waited and joined her parents who left Dahlonega this week for Montana. Mrs. Burrell and her husband have not been living together for some time and she was fearful if he found out she was going to leave that he would come and take the child, as he lives in less than a days drive up on the Southern Railroad. This explains the mystery.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, GA., MAY 5, '99.

Hick's predictions for May will be found on fourth page.

It is a pretty little girl baby and is stopping at J. V. Harbison's.

The residence of H. D. Gurley is receiving a new coat of paint.

Straw hats at and below cost, to close out stock at H. D. Gurley's.

G. H. McGuire spent a few days with his mother at Barrettsville last week.

B. F. Anderson and lady spent several days in Gainesville last week.

E. W. Strickland is engaged in fitting up the Baptist church with new seats.

Merchant Joe McGee has purchased the Jess Adams house and lot adjoining his property.

R. C. Wood, after spending a few days in Dahlonega left last Monday for Leroy, Kansas.

H. D. Gurley has placed on sale a full stock of all sorts of paint and varnish brushes. All at Atlanta prices.

G. D. Bruce is turning out some excellent pictures of the cadets, old soldiers and young ladies taken on decoration day.

W. H. Cook and family left last Wednesday for Willow Creek, Montana, where they will locate and make it their future home.

Two females had a fight in Auraria district the other day, caused by one of them circulating a report which displeased the other.

To-morrow J. F. Moore will have in a supply of Pic Nic and Dove brand hams, both keg and bottled pickles and new turnips.

Don't be alarmed about the tax receiver closing his books without notifying you. He will give you due notice in the NUGGET first.

Ed. McDonald, who lives down on the Yahoola Creek is also very happy on account of a little girl arriving at his house a few days ago.

Twenty-four new subscribers for April. Let them come there is room for others. The NUGGET is read by the high, the low, the rich and the poor.

J. A. Howard has accepted a position in the postoffice at Gainesville and will move to that city. Johnnie is a good citizen and we dislike to give him up.

The Sig Ma Nu Society picnicked at Porter Springs last Monday causing the livermen to wear pleasant smiles as some of the boys even sent to Gainesville for teams.

All the old teachers in the college were elected by the board of trustees last Saturday for another year. No changes were made except Prof. Witherspoon was transferred to another department.

The members of the Dahlonega Masonic Lodge went up to White county last Sunday to hold the usual Masonic services over the grave of their deceased brother, B. H. Corbin, who passed away a short time ago. It is said that a thousand people were present.

Ex-Tax Collector Walker made it appear to the last grand jury that he had paid the county about fifty dollars too much while he was in office causing them to recommend the ordinary to refund the money, but Mr. Tate has since made an investigation and says that he will not pay it until he is forced to do so by law.

As stated in the NUGGET some time ago Bill Woody was bound over to the Superior Court charged with stealing Bad Odems' hogs. The grand jury failed to return any true Bill against Woody who last week swore out a possessory warrant against Odem and the case was tried here last Saturday before Squires Worley and Allen who rendered their decision in favor of the defendant. It seems that both these men have hogs alike which is causing all this trouble.

Our farmers are as busy as bees now.

Read of valuable lands for sale elsewhere.

Mayor Price paid Gainesville a flying visit last week.

If you want to keep posted watch the columns of the NUGGET.

The sheriff had no sales last Tuesday. This speaks well for Lumpkin.

The mail now leaves at 7:45 a. m. and makes the trip to Gainesville in five and a half hours.

Harris Postell, who was lodged in jail a few days ago, charged with being in a riot, made bond last Monday.

Our merchants are now inviting you to come and trade with them through the columns of the NUGGET. Come to see them at once.

Judge Brittain is thinking of attending the big reunion of Confederate veterans which takes place next week at Charleston.

Sheriff Davis is making Lumpkin county a wide awake sheriff. When papers are put into his hands they are executed at once.

Our town during these pretty sunny days present a very dull appearance. Both the farmers and miners are getting in good work.

Since Judge Tate has had all the rubbish moved from the lower story of the court room and fitted up the post office it is in one of the most cool and pleasant places in town now.

Albert Wheelchel has accepted a permanent job at Anniston, Ala., and is moving his family to that city. This reduces the number of our schoolmates in Dahlonega to one. It has been twenty-five years since we played leap frog together but our ties of friendship for Albert are just as strong to-day as they were then and we hate to see him leave his native town and seek another elime.

Last Monday Messrs. Donaldson and Stringer commenced building a rock wall in front of the Masonic building which they have since finished up in a workmanlike manner, adding much to the appearance of the property. Just 43 years to day from the time that Mr. Donaldson commenced this work his father began the erection of the building which is one of the best preserved structures in Dahlonega, but the contractor has long since gone to his reward.

After the pretty weather set in the daily mail from Dahlonega to Gainesville continued to be irregular and often an hour or so behind schedule time, causing Col. Farrow, postmaster at Gainesville, to make frequent complaints to the government. Last week he was authorized to discharge Evans & Hatfield, the present contractors, and empowered to employ other carriers until the original contractor could make arrangements to have the mails to arrive and depart promptly on time. The Colonel made a contract with Frank Meaders and Buffington, who carried it promptly on time for $2.00 per day each from Monday until Wednesday, when it was turned over to Evans & Hatfield again and the first day that they arrived with it here were fifteen minutes behind time. The carrier reported the train as being behind that much but Col. Farrow, who came up the same day says that the train was there and the mail turned over promptly to the carrier on time. The contractor on this route resides in Salt Lake City, Utah, who gets $600.00. He sub let it to A. W. Meaders, at Watkinsville, for about $600.00. Then Mr. Meaders sub contracted it to Evans & Hatfield for $580, being 92 cents per day for a pair of horses, a vehicle and a driver each way, causing them to depend largely on passengers to enable them to do the work, and in looking around for passengers and loading the backs so heavy explains why our mails are late.

Dr. Wheelchel says there is very little sickness in this section now.

If you wish to invest in some valuable gold mining property it will pay you to read at on fourth page of to-days paper.

Rev. A. F. Norton, of Lula, will be in Dahlonega from the 8th to 14th inst. to deliver books ordered from him by a number of our citizens.

The penitentiary authorities seem to be slow about coming after Scott Chapman who was sentenced to go during court week. He is still in jail.

If the front of the calaboose was fixed up a little it would add much to its appearance and keep pace with other improvements on that side of town.

Goodman McGuire has the largest and cheapest stock of straw hats to be found in town—all sorts and sizes. Call at once and get you one for the season.

Sheriff Davis has been making it hot for violators of the law since being in office. The record shows that he has had 23 prisoners in jail since the first of February.

Our old friend John Hutecheson was up from Auraria this week. He used to serve as tax collector of Lumpkin county and made a good officer and is always a welcome visitor to our town.

The work of improvement is still going on in Dahlonega. G. H. McGuire has bought the desirable lot in rear of the Signal office fronting on the other street, from Mrs. L. Q. Meaders, and will begin the erection of a dwelling on the same at once.

Young Conner, a farmer who resides near the foot of Cedar Mountain, more than ten miles from Dahlonega, frequently brings a load of wood when he comes to town. He says it won't pay a farmer to come to town with an empty wagon and he brings a load of wood when having nothing else.

John Beck had a narrow escape from being killed last Tuesday while cleaning out a well down at Mechanicsville. His brother Goodman was at the windless and had John drawn up nearly to the top when the crank gave way and John was going down at a very rapid speed when Goodman grabbed hold of the rope thus breaking the speed and saving his brother from sustaining any injuries whatever, but the rope scorched Goodman's hand like it had been done by fire, rendering him unable to use it for several days.

Our town had a pleasant visit from Colonel and Mrs. Farrow this week. The Colonel was up on telephone and road matters. He is very much interested in the changes recommended by the last grand jury on the Bearden's Bridge road. It is also his preference for the telephone line to come that route but the majority of the stockholders favor the Neisler Ford route. His special business was to be present during the locating of the new changes in the road which are being now by the county surveyor.

Mr. Walker and Mr. Parkee, two gentlemen who look after pensions—one to secure them for parties and the other to take them away when not entitled—have been here this week. Mr. Parkee was engaged in taking affidavits in certain matters which concerns the government. While here he visited the home of Samuel Jones, J. B. Edwards, John Luckey and probably others residing in this county drawing pensions from the government. There is doubtless some trouble up but we are unable to tell our readers what it is. Mr. Parkee and Wm. Dotson, a former pensioner, were in close consultation for quite a while. The gentleman seems to have a good deal of confidence in what Dotson tells him as he was dropped from the list because he told the truth when asked showing that he was not entitled under the law, when the government was unable to show it by any other source.

The fishing season is here and much time will be wasted on the banks of the creeks and rivers.

Remember when you need blank deeds or any other kind of blanks, that the NUGGET office is the place to get them.

Only a few more weeks until commencement when the young schoolboy orators will speak to an audience instead of the trees.

The female population of Dahlonega is increasing rapidly within the past few days. The last arrival is stopping at J. B. Anderson's.

Some of our citizens have already sent in their applications to Mr. Witsel, at Blue Ridge, for enumerators places for Lumpkin county.

Lieut. F. L. S. Price, who was appointed as such officer in the U. S. army some time ago, is now on his way to the Philippine Islands together with his men. They leave San Francisco to-day.

The new Commissary owned by the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co. is receiving a large stock of well selected goods of every description, which are being opened up as fast as they arrive, and by next week they will have everything ready for business. Look out for their ad.

C. M. Moore requests us to state that he will commence making brick at once provided he can get an order for a hundred thousand, which he thinks he can manufacture at about $4.00 per thousand. Leave your orders with J. F. Moore at once so that he may know what to do.

Mr. Perdue has resigned as postmaster at Jay, Ga., and as there was no one willing to take charge of the office it is closed and the people of that community have no nearer place to get their mail than Dahlonega, being a distance of some six or eight miles which is going to be very inconvenient for them.

There will likely be an increase of inmates at the pauper's home soon as the wife of one of the parties who was sent to the chain last week, has four small children which she will be unable to support without some assistance. A verbal application has already been made to the ordinary for their reception.

E. S. Copeland is one of the most energetic and wide awake young merchants ever doing business in Dahlonega. Less than a couple of months ago he opened up a small stock of staple and fancy groceries, confectioneries, etc., and by his strict attention to business has increased his trade so as to enable him to completely fill his large store room with a well selected stock of general merchandise, being sold so cheap as to astonish you. See his ad elsewhere in this issue.

It is now certain that the telephone line will be built from Dahlonega to Gainesville via Neisler's Ford it being the most direct route. Capt. H. D. Ingersoll, went down to Gainesville this week to make arrangements for its construction at once, which will likely be completed in a few weeks. Last Monday night the company got permission from the council to run the line anywhere over the streets of Dahlonega desired. Judge Tate has granted the same privilege over the road from Dahlonega to the county line.

We caught a negro stealing wood early last Tuesday morning and the way he run can better be imagined than described. He had slept a little too late and when we discovered him he was arranging his armful of wood on jeweler McGuire's porch. When he saw us coming he dropped the wood and slid off of the porch as if he was greased and butted a couple of palings from Mr. Meaders' fence and disappeared like a ghost. The big meeting they had the other Sunday didn't have any effect on this negro so as to keep him from stealing peoples wood.

Capt. F. M. Williams is making some more improvements on his residence.

Do you eat candies? If so see the finest line in town, just received, pure and fresh at H. D. Gurley's.

Canned goods of all varieties, sauces, relishes, pickles and pure fruit jellies and jams—finest and cheapest line in city at H. D. Gurley's.

Ralf Beasley, son of Thomas Beasley, who had his leg amputated some weeks ago, died at his fathers house in Crumby's district last Wednesday.

Thomas Edwards, residing out in Davis' district, who hauled timbers here used in the construction of the court house years ago, has the oldest and probably the largest gourd in the county. It measures seven feet, seven and a half inches round and holds nearly a bushel. It was raised by his mother, in the Gallows Hollow within the corporate limits of Dahlonega in 1838.

Rev. D. M. Edwards went to Atlanta this week and brought home his little son who has been in the Grady Hospital under treatment for several months, together with his wife who has been keeping a watchful eye over the little fellow during all this time. The little boy is improved some in health but we learn he still has to use his crutches and may never permanently recover.

You needn't trouble yourselves about asking the sheriff to make any change in the legal advertising of the county by taking it away from the NUGGET. Sheriff Davis made a proposition to us voluntarily the day after he made his bond and his word to us is just as good as his bond. Besides this the sheriff is not going to take his advertising away from the NUGGET, which has the largest list of bona fide subscribers of any paper published in the county just to please three or four persons.

Sheriff Davis returned from Atlanta last Monday with Joe Bonner, who used to reside in Lumpkin county, charged with burglary and locked him safely in jail where he will likely remain until next court as it is not believed that he can make bond. The property which he is charged with taking is a copper plate which was carried away from the Mary Henry mill one night several months ago, afterwards being found by Rev. J. B. Brown covered up with leaves in the woods near his house. Everything was kept very quiet since and nothing was done about it until court convened when sufficient testimony was furnished the grand jury to satisfy them that it was their duty to return a bill against the defendant. After the sheriff returned from Atlanta he went out and brought in blind John Hester and put him in jail who is charged with being another one of the parties that helped to carry off the plate.

About two months ago one Jeff Strickland, a resident of South Carolina, left his wife and children, stole a young girl and crossed the line into Georgia. Not long afterwards it was learned that they were staying about some of his kind-folks in the eastern portion of Lumpkin county. A warrant was sent to sheriff Davis asking for their arrest, who made a raid for the parties without any success. Later it was learned that they were in the neighborhood of Capt. Asbury, in White county, and on last Tuesday night the Sheriff and Will Rice concluded that they would go up and see if they couldn't bring in their game. They located them just about daylight next morning where they had a bed in the woods near a half brother of the man wanted, but they were guarded by a watchful dog which gave the officers away as they were approaching. They didn't get to see the man but got a glimpse of the girl as she ran off with her shoes in her hand. Strickland will be hard to catch as it is said that he has quite a number of relatives in White, Lumpkin and Dawson counties.

Mining News.

Things are moving along down at the Crescent mine in a business like manner under the personal observation of R. W. Walker with satisfactory results.

Joe Howell and John Brooksher had a lot of iron pipes hauled down on Crooked Creek this week so as to better enable them to work a deposit mine.

Mr. Burns has suspended operation on the Schly property for awhile on account of being unable to keep the water down with the pump which he was using. But he is moving things ahead at the street mine.

Mr. Marsland, lady and son spent a few hours in Dahlonega last Friday. They have been located for some time a few miles above Dahlonega, where the gentlemen spends a portion of his time with some hands prospecting for gold. We expect to give you something more interesting about this property in a short while.

The famous asbestos mine at Salt Mountain, in White county, has been sold for $200,000 to Bancroft & Kenrick, mining engineers of London. The sale of the mine, it is understood, was completed some days ago, and Mr. Kenrick, the agent of the London firm, which represents a number of English capitalists, and who is now in White county, has paid $15,000 down cash as the first payment of the sale.

The main veins at the Singleton cut have never shown up so well as they do now, since the Tahloneka Mining Co. has had the property. But the Company is not doing much mining on them now, because the sulphurets ore are in too much quantity and too high grade to waste through a stamp mill. They are waiting to put in concentrators before doing further mining on those veins, though it is said that there are still places on them that show up rich in free gold. Another quartz vein three to three and a half feet thick, with quartz slates running with it, and forming a large body, has been uncovered a considerable distance in the cut, and has also been cut by the tunnel, and beyond that there is still more pay ore. It runs parallel with the main veins, and about fifty feet from them. It is said to be high grade ore, but like the main veins is too sulphuretted for a stamp mill. It makes a fine showing. A tram-road has been completed to the upper end of the property, and Mr. Norwood is pushing developments there. Enough has already been done to show there is a big lot of ore there, but Mr. Norwood says he guesses he will have sulphurets there too. The Tahloneka Co. has gone along quietly here, but it has done lots of work that will soon bring its reward, and everybody wishes the Company well.

A Pic Nic on Blood Mountain.

GADSDISTOWN, GA. May 1.

DEAR NUGGET:—As the sun rose last Sunday morning our quiet little village was in an uproar with wagons hacks and buggies all going to join other places to enjoy a few hours on top of Blood Mountain. By 8 o'clock everything like a hack, buggy or wagon was gone from the livery stables. We all had a time long to be remembered and never forgotten. Everybody seemed to try to get on top of the mountain. The orator of the day was Walter Gursley who did the subject justice. Sam McGee made the lemonade and furnished the candy. Sam had only to look into the glass of lemonade to save sugar, so one of our pretty girls said. One of the fair sex of John Hendricks, with the aid of the many young ladies, furnished the music for the occasion. Bill Shope and Clem Cayender were billed for a lecture but got there a little too late. We all had a pleasant time, as you know, Mr. Editor, that all people who go from town to the country come home and claim a good time.

We wish the NUGGET success.

WORTHLESS GUANOS

HOW FARMER-ANALYSTS PROTECT THEM FROM SNAKE BY THE STATE LAWS.

ANALYSIS IS PROVIDED FOR

Commissioner O. B. Stevens Points Out Steps That Farmers Should Take to Thwart Trickery.

QUESTION.—How are the farmers protected from spurious guano and what steps can be taken to have our guano analyzed and procure information concerning these goods before we have to pay for same?

ANSWER.—This department was established to protect the interest of the farmers, and to give information on all subjects pertaining to the agricultural interests. Under the present laws which govern the sale of commercial fertilizers, if any manufacturer or manipulator would attempt to sell spurious articles to the farmers of this state, the environments placed upon the sale of fertilizers are adequate and of such character that render it almost an impossibility to pass off shoddy goods upon the purchaser. It is true that agents in their desire to sell often represent their goods to run higher than their guarantee, but the farmer is not to be taken in by such a trick. It is his duty to require that each sack shall have the brand printed upon it, also giving the analysis and the guarantee of each ingredient that goes to make up the total amount of plant food. Of course strict attention should be given to the minimum guarantee and not the maximum, as the manufacturer tries to give enough of each ingredient to go above the minimum guarantee, so as to meet the requirements of the law, therefore the minimum guarantee is the only thing to which we should pay attention. After the goods are purchased, then the law comes to the rescue of both the purchaser and seller.

The law requires the manufacturer to register the name of the goods, the name of the manufacturer, the place where manufactured and the guarantee of what amount of plant food with the department before they sell or offer for sale any of their brands. After the brands are registered, the law requires the manufacturers to give the commissioner of agriculture notices each day of every sack of goods sold or consigned to parties in this state, also to give the names of the parties to whom sold, and where said goods are to be delivered, so that every sack comes directly under the eye of the commissioner, and he can send inspectors to find the different brands in all portions of the state. The samples are taken by the inspectors and are sealed by them and sent to the commissioner. They are then numbered and recorded in this office and sent to the chemist. The state chemist analyzes these goods, and they are returned to the commissioner by number. These reports are then recorded, and go to make up the bulletin which is sent to every one from whom a sample was taken and to all who ask for them. Besides this plan of procuring samples, I have issued a circular letter through the newspapers of Georgia stating that if any person desired a special analysis of his guano, that if he would send me a request, I would send an inspector to get a sample of the goods and make an analysis of it. The law requires that if the commissioner sends in a sample to the state chemist, it must be taken by a sworn inspector, and only from unbroken sacks or packages. As soon as the chemist can analyze these goods, the results are sent directly to the persons for whom made.

Under the Ellington law, every farmer can demand that a sample shall be taken of the goods he purchases at the time of the delivery for the party from whom he buys his guano. This sample shall be taken by both the seller and buyer, delivered to the ordinary, and he will seal it in their presence and make a record of same. If for any reason the purchaser believes that his crop is not benefited by the use of said fertilizer, he can have the ordinary to send the sample to the state chemist for analysis, and if the goods do not come up to the guarantee, the purchaser need not pay for them. Thus you see the many precautions thrown around the sale of this article of commerce.

(1) Register the names of the manufacturer of every sack or consignment. Give name and address of each purchaser or consignee.

(2) Purchase tags for same, and place them on the sacks.

(3) Notify the commissioner of agriculture of every sale or consignment. Give name and address of each purchaser or consignee.

All of this information is required to be given, and is filed and recorded. Should they fail to do this, the seller not only subjects himself to non-collection for the goods, but also to prosecution for misdemeanor.

I propose as commissioner to give opportunity to the farmers to get themselves from the dishonest dealer, as well as to protect the interests of the honest manufacturer who complies with the law.—State Agricultural Department.

Hix's Forecasts for May.

A regular "Vulcan" storm period is central on the 1st, Moon being at perigee and at her declination south. If Moon were north of the equator at this time an unusually warm wave might be expected; as it is, a marked low barometer with rising temperature ending in storms of wind, thunder and rain, may naturally be looked for in most sections on one or more of the four first days of May. Ordinarily these disturbances would reach a crisis about the 2nd and 3rd, but Moon being on the equator on the 4th, high temperature, thunder and rain will hardly reach their culmination before that date. Change to much cooler weather will follow these disturbances and last for two or three days.

From the 7th to 9th look for reaction to very much warmer, with falling barometer and more storms of rain, hail and thunder in many localities. Moon being in conjunction with the sun on the 9th, we name that date as the most probable for forcible electrical and atmospheric perturbations. Your barometer, the temperature, wind currents and clouds, will all indicate to you betimes the character of disturbances likely to result. The change to high pressure, with cooler weather will follow promptly behind these storms. One or two nights of probable frost will result in latitudes northward, about the 6th and 10th, but marked change to warmer weather will quickly return. The Vulcan brace in the storm diagram shows that a regular storm period is central on the 12th, covering the 11th to 15th. This period will develop a very high temperature for the season over most of the country. The barometer will be depressed generally, and some wide-reaching storms will appear on and touching the 12th to 14th. We have often explained the fact that the electric focus of solar influence is central in the latitude of our central states about this time, and that daily cycles of rain and thunder are very probable. These recurring storms usually return about the same hour of the day or night, often for days in succession, until finally they culminate a few hours earlier than the preceding days in a general and violent storm; after which the barometer rises quite high, winds change to westerly, and cooler weather with frosts northward is the natural order.

A reactionary disturbance centers on the 17th and 18th, with Moon at first quarter. More marked storm conditions will develop at this time, and Moon being on the equator on the 19th, the warm wave and electrical storms will hardly reach their crisis, or subside, before that date. Watch storm reports and see. As we now enter a combined Venus and Mercury period, all who understand our storm charts will anticipate much of what is reasonably to be expected.

The storm charts show that the Mercury period is central on the 25th, with moon full and at extreme south declination;—that the regular Vulcan disturbance is central on the 24th, with the Venus brace covering all the combination. We do not affirm that tornado storms must develop under these combined influences but coming at this season, we do say that such results need not surprise our readers anywhere in the regions frequently visited by such storms. We will name Wednesday, the 24th, to Saturday the 27th, as dates on and about which violent storms are quite probable. This announcement should not cause unnecessary foreboding or fear in a single soul. It is made for that purpose. Dangerous storms may not come at all. But we do insist that the conditions point strongly to such possibilities, and that a calm and prudent watch should be kept on approaching storm clouds. Those who have made reasonable preparations for such visitations, know the peace of mind that results from such forethought and care; those who spend their time and energy in belittling us for counselling the people, instead of using common sense and making places of refuge for themselves and families, are the ones who live in the most mortal dread of the torments, their fear being the just penalty for their wilful and unpardonable imprudence.

Readers who have learned the peculiarities of the Venus disturbance, will not be surprised if very cool weather comes immediately on the heels of electrical storms, during the last half of May. We believe that the temperature will fall low enough for snow squalls in the north, with heavy frosts at night, after the cloud areas have passed away. Watch the changes that follow quickly after storms of rain, hail and thunder. Remember that marked hail storms are notable during the Venus periods. May ends much warmer and threatening.

From this local, in the News, of Tinsale, Tenn., the editor is evidently of the opinion that winter is over: "A good $7 overcoat, second-hand, for sale at $2 cash. Call at this office if you wish to see it."

There is not the least bit of danger of any race trouble down where the lynchings have occurred recently. Every negro who says a word in sympathy for Holt is being run down and flogged until he is glad to keep his mouth shut.

A maiden lady of a certain town in Cornwall owned a parrot, which somehow acquired the disagreeable habit of observing at frequent intervals: "I wish the old lady would die." This annoyed the birds owner, who spoke to her curate about it. "I think we can rectify the matter," replied the good man. "I also have a parrot but he is a righteous bird having been brought up in the way he should go. I will lend you my parrot, and I trust his influence will reform that depraved bird of yours." The curate's birds was placed in the same room with the wicked one and as soon as the two had become accustomed to each other, the bad bird remarked: "I wish the old lady would die." Whereupon the clergyman's bird rolled up his eyes and in solemn accents added: "We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord!" The story got out in the parish, and for several Sundays it was necessary to omit the liturgy at the church services.—Household Words.

Find Your Birth-Mouth.

Here is an old astrological prediction, said to indicate, with tolerable certainty, the character of a girl according to the month she happens to be born in.

If a girl is born in January, she will be a prudent housewife, given to melancholy, but good tempered.

If in February, a humane and affectionate wife and tender mother.

If in March, a frivolous chatter box, somewhat given to quarreling.

If in April, inconsistent, not intelligent, but likely to be good looking.

If in May, handsome and likely to be happy.

If in June, impetuous will marry early, and frivolous.

If in July, passably handsome, but with a sulky temper.

If in August, amiable and practical, likely to marry rich.

If in September, discreet, affable and much liked.

If in October, pretty and coquettish likely to be unhappy.

If in November, liberal, kind, of a mild disposition.

If in December, well proportioned, fond of novelty, and extravagant.

I have been a suffering from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have used all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found one remedy that has been a success as a cure, and that is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Men are just like hogs, however distasteful that may sound to hogs," says a writer in an exchange. "When a hog gets an ear of corn, every hog will trot along behind him and squeal and whine for a bite, but just let the front hog get caught with its head fast in a crack and every son of a sow will jump on him and tear him to pieces; just so with men. As long as a man is prosperous and has money he can't keep friends off with a base bait. The moment he is unfortunate and his wealth is gone he is not only snubbed by former allied friends, but they at once begin to do him all the harm possible. When a man starts down grade the world steps aside and greases the track."

Good Blood!

Your heart beats over one hundred thousand times each day. One hundred thousand supplies of good or bad blood to your brain. Which is it?

If bad, impure blood, then your brain aches. You are troubled with drowsiness yet cannot sleep. You are as tired in the morning as at night. You have no nerve power. Your food does you but little good.

Stimulants, tonics, headache powders, cannot cure you; but will. It makes the liver, kidneys, skin and bowels perform their proper work. It removes all impurities from the blood. And it makes the blood rich in its life-giving properties.

To Hasten Recovery.

You will be more rapidly cured if you will take a laxative dose of Ayer's pills each night. They arouse the sluggish liver and thus cure biliousness.

Whooping Cough.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

It did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. ore, South Burgetstown, Pa. For sale by F. W. Hall Mds Co.

Mining News.

The pump is being fitted up at the Lockhart and Mr. Crisson is getting things in shape again to work this mine on a still more profitable plan.

Eate Johnson, who has been deposited mining down on the Ivey property, a little over a mile from town, struck a very rich vein last week, being the richest ore we have examined in a long time. The vein is about five or six inches and the ore shown us contained as much gold as quartz.

A few days ago a clean up was made at the Stewart five stamp mill after a few days run, which yielded twenty and a half ounces of pure gold. The mill had to be suspended for a short time so as to enable them to do some work on the dam and make other necessary changes.

Mr. Whorton, of the Calhoun, left a few days ago to be gone a short time on business. Everything at his mine will soon be in working order. The pump will soon be ready to force all the necessary water on the rich deposits. The wheel which operates it has been completed and tested, giving entire satisfaction and when all is ready it will move everything off like clock work.

Messrs. Burns and Butrey are pushing things right a head at the Street mine. Eight men—four at each shaft—are taking out a large amount of splendid ore which is being crushed at the Lockhart mill. They struck a small vein the other day which was so rich that the teamster said that he could see the gold in the slate on his wagon as he was hauling it to the mill. This mine is very easily worked as no blasting is required in taking out the ore.

Z. T. Hargrove, of Acworth, who owns some mining property near Auraria is up having it developed by two of the best and most experienced prospectors in the county, being W. T. Bryson and J. T. Loggins, who have already made sufficient discoveries to cause the owner to open his eyes and rejoice because he is fortunate enough to own a good gold mine in Lumpkin county. He is fully convinced that the rich Stewart vein runs through it.

The girls of Prescott, Ari., have been taught a lesson that they will remember. An old bachelor in that town has just died and has bequeathed to Maggie Ann Montgomery $50,000—all because Maggie always had a smile and a pleasant word for him, and other girls only frowned at him.

M. V. Richards, of the Southern Railway, in a letter to the Asheville Citizen, uses this strong language, but perhaps none too strong: "Good roads are the evangelists of a better and higher type of civilization everywhere and are to be encouraged and commended by every friend of progress and advancement."

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism.

"I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled.

Have You Heard Of It?

You may have heard about SCOTT'S EMULSION and have a vague notion that it is cod-liver oil with its bad taste and smell and all its other repulsive features. It is cod-liver oil, the purest and the best in the world, but made so palatable that almost everybody can take it. Nearly all children like it and ask for more.

looks like cream; it nourishes the wasted body of the baby, child or adult better than cream or any other food in existence. It bears about the same relation to other emulsions that cream does to milk. If you have had any experience with other so-called "just as good" preparations, you will find that this is a fact.

The hypophosphites that are combined with the cod-liver oil give additional value to it because they tone up the nervous system and impart strength to the whole body.

Wind that Blew no Good.

She was a stylish girl prettily attired, and as she carried on an animated conversation with her male companion, on a Camden ferry boat, bound for Philadelphia she attracted many admiring glances from the other passengers on Monday afternoon. What caught the attention of many of these was her mass of golden-bronze hair, which fluffed over her brow and shell like ears, and hung down behind in a heavy glinting coil. The eyes of all were admiring its scintillation as she went to cross the gang plank at Market street wharf, when suddenly a puff of the treacherous March wind caught her hat and whirled it overboard. Everybody smiled, for with it went the beautiful coil of Titan tresses. Then one of the deck hands took a boat and fished up both hat and hair for her, while stood and turned red and white by turns, and her escort looked as though he wished the ferry slip would open up and swallow him from the gaze of the gaping crowd.—Philadelphia Record.

The other day a Chicago lady went to her lawyer and asked excitedly whether he had filed her application for a divorce which she had instituted against her husband. "I am working on the papers now," he replied. "Thank heavens; then I am not too late," she exclaimed; "destroy the papers and evidence at once." The lawyer was about to congratulate her on her reconciliation to her husband, but she cut him short by exclaiming: "Reconciled? no; he was run over by a freight train this morning, and I want you to commence a suit at once against the company for damages."

Two weeks ago the soldiers, home, near Atlanta, was sold at auction and purchased by Mr. Joel Hart for the small sum $8,000, a figure much less than its real value so it is held by people who claim to know what the property is worth. It is said that a few days before the sale Commissioner O. B. Stevens of the agricultural department made a private offer of $12,000 for the property.

The Filipinos surprised the United States forces at San Fernando with a daring trick last Monday. A railway train, with an engine at each end, was run almost to the American outposts and in plain sight of the town. Before they could be reached a gang of natives sprang off the train, tore up several lengths of the railway track, boarded the quickly train again and steamed away so that there was no opportunity to check the raiders.

MANILA, May 7.—To clear the Filipinos out of Bacolor, about five miles southwest of San Fernando, will be the next task of the Americans. The rebel general, Mascardo, has a force of 7,000 men there, well armed and possessed of plenty of ammunition. His troops have never met American soldiers, and they think, according to reports carried to San Fernando, that they can whip the whole lot. Bacolor is well entrenched and thousands of natives are working like beavers digging trenches and carrying the dirt in baskets. The enemy uses his riflemen for fighting only, but compels the Bolo men and Chinese to labor incessantly.

Hall Superior Court was convened last week principally to try Tom Chapman, who is charged with hiring a man already convicted and now in the chain gang, to burn Meaders & Quillians mills in Hall county about two years ago. Twice before miss trials have been made in Chapman's case but this time he was found guilty and recommended to the mercy of the court and sentenced to four years in the penitentiary. His attorney has moved for a new trial and his case will not likely stop before it reaches the Supreme Court. He is worth about three thousand dollars and will give it to the lawyers before he reaches the chain gang. He is now out on bond.

THE TELEPHONE.

An Atlanta Company Will Build the Dahlonega Telephone Line.

Last week the stockholders of the Dahlonega Telephone Co. held another important meeting. One object was to determine the route. A proposition had been made to the citizens of Auraria and New Bridge to build it that way provided their citizens would give one hundred dollars. Most of those in that part of the county desired the line but some who subscribed didn't wish to pay the money until the line was completed to Auraria. So when the meeting convened the $100 had not been paid in and a motion carried to build it via Neisler's Ford. Col. Farrow was present at the meeting who proposed to give them his check for $200 if they would build it by Bearden's bridge, but this was not accepted and the line goes the route mentioned. Col. Farrow will extend the phone on to Porter Springs. He turned over to the Company all his rights of way in Hall county and as far into Lumpkin as is desired by the Company. He has been granted permission by the city council of Gainesville to use the posts out to the water works, a distance of two miles this way. This right has also been turned over to the Company by the Colonel. So everything will work in harmony between the Colonel and the Company. Last Monday the contract of constructing the line was awarded to the Gate City Electric Supply and Constructing Co., represented by Mr. Woodson, who is now engaged in surveying the line. The amount paid is $25 per mile. The Company digs the holes and furnishes the posts. The work is to be completed within two months from the time the holes are dug and posts furnished.

The Dahlonega Company to Have a $150,000 Plant.

At the end of a contest between giants, the Edward P. Allis company, of Milwaukee, Wis., secured the order from the Dahlonega Consolidated Gold Mining company for the 120-stamp mill and chlorination plant, for the Georgia gold mines. The contract amounts to about $150,000 and the leading manufacturers of mining machinery of the country competed for it. The margin was very close and the E. P. Allis company won out on account of the superior workmanship put upon their machinery, as well as their world wide reputation.

This mill has all the modern improvements. It will crush and mill 400 tons of ore daily and is guaranteed to save 96 per cent of the gold. The ore is handled automatically from the time it leaves the crusher until it passes over the plates and the concentrates are deposited in a bin.

The chlorination plant will handle from 35 to 40 tons of concentrates daily and they are to pass through the whole process automatically. The stamp mill will cost $120,000 and the chlorination plant about $30,000. There is also an air compressor that will run twelve drills, dynamo to run the cars by electricity, and two Pelton water wheels of 400 horse power each.

When completed next September, this will be the largest as well as the most modern stamp mill and chlorination plant in the world, under one roof. Some idea may be had of the meaning of the new processes and labor saving machinery in such a plant as this, when it is known that it will reduce the cost of mining and milling ore from $4 to $5 to $1 per ton, by the use of water power, of which the Dahlonega company has 4,000 horse power, winter and summer. Now that enough stock is sold to put up all needed machinery, secrets may be told without giving the semblance of bulging. Before leaving for home yesterday, President Adams said that the ore to be milled by this plant will average from $8 to $12 per ton. The average assays of this ore are over $12 and no one would be surprised to see it net $10 per ton.—Toledo News.

Meeting of Dahlonega C. G. G. M. Company.

At a meeting of the Dahlonega G. M. Co., at Toledo, Ohio, on the 4th inst., the following directors were elected:

J. W. Adams, Chattanooga, Tenn.
C. B. Paul, Delaware, O.
Frank G. Thomson, Toledo, O.
H. D. Ingersoll, Dahlonega, Ga.
F. R. Adams, Delaware, O.
Geo. H. Breyman, Toledo, O.
R. C. Thomson, Toledo, O.
J. G. Rosenthal, Delaware, O.
Mark Hopkins, St. Clair, Mich.
J. W. Adams, President.
Geo. H. Breyman, Vice-President.
The company voted to put up at Hand 120 stamps instead of two 60 stamp mills, as talked of.
Report from the mines was encouraging and the stockholders were much pleased with the outlook.

Son Strathan, a negro who assaulted a white lady in Randolph county last Christmas plead guilty this week and was given 20 years in the chain gang.

Old Students Association.

A meeting of the Old Student's Association of the N. G. A. College, was held in the college chapel last Monday afternoon, Col. R. H. Baker presiding.

Not as many of the former students, residing in town, were present as should have been to consider the importance of the meeting. However, we hope those who were absent will be glad to know that the Association will give a banquet during commencement at which a large number of the old students are expected to be present.

Committees were appointed to secure a place for the banquet, collect from the citizens whatever they wish to donate and to make arrangements for a grand banquet and reunion of the old students of the college.

Three colored children near Bryan, Ga., were baked alive last Monday night. Their parents locked them up and went to church when the house caught a fire and burnt three to death and another is expected to die.

Bananas and lemons at Halls.

J. B. Hatfield leaves for Monticello to-day.

Col. H. W. J. Ham is billed to lecture here to night.

Miss Lizzie Chapman's pupils plinked Wednesday.

The Hall House has been alive with mining men this week.

Fresh shipment of sugar cured hams and breakfast bacon at Halls.

G. H. McGuire failed to trade for the town lot spoken of last week.

Mr. Marsland is again located in Dahlonega—stopping at the Hatfield House.

Capt. H. D. Ingersoll has moved his office in to the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co.'s new building.

Mrs. L. Q. Meaders, after being in Ringgold for some time, returned to Dahlonega Wednesday.

Don't forget in passing B. R. Meaders & Sons' store to examine those ten cent books in their show window.

Capt. F. W. Hall and lady after spending the winter in Florida, returned to Dahlonega last Tuesday, both enjoying good health.

The new road to Porter Springs via Spencer's mills has been surveyed and ready to be made as soon as the ordinary passes upon it.

Mr. Breymann, Vice-President of the Dahlonega G. M. Co., looked over our iron fields this week in company with Capt. W. J. Worley.

A big bargain in books, erse tissue paper, all shades, gold paint, pocket knives, shirt waists, Glory Soap and syrup at B. R. Meaders & Sons.

About a two foot vein was struck last Wednesday, causing a good deal of excitement in mining circles as it is very rich, showing much gold in the rock at the Street mine.

A big assortment of jewelry, ribbon, ladies' hose, box paper, narrow lace, pearl buttons, etc., will arrive about next Thursday at B. R. Meaders & Sons.

Dahlonega is well supplied with dogs. The town register shows that there are 60 within the corporation—six of them being females. The tax on dogs is 50 cents and $2 on females.

Capt. Adams, President of the Dahlonega G. M. Co., Geo. W. Breymann, Vice-President, and F. G. Thomson, one of the directors, have all been here this week looking to the interest of the company.

Mrs. Tilda Findley, who owns half of the valuable lot near Auraria which is being developed by Mr. Hargrove, owning the other half, went down to the property last Tuesday to look after her interest in the same. There is a probability of this property changing hands soon, we understand.

The town council has just finished assessing the taxes and find that the total amount of taxable property within the corporate limits on the first day of February foots up $180,175. It would amount to a great deal more now. This is a considerable increase over last year.

C. M. Moore requests us to state that he will commence making brick at once provided he can get an order for a hundred thousand, and which he thinks he can manufacture at about $4.00 per thousand. Leave your orders with J. F. Moore at once so that he may know what to do.

G. McGuire administrator of the Wimpy estate, in company with F. L. Reese, went down to Auraria last Monday and perfected a compromise with Mr. Stewart who was constructing a dam on the property of the estate. From there they went to Gainesville and spent until Tuesday on business.

A new supply of type writing paper just received at this office.

Mr. Hunter will have Will Price's house completed in a few more weeks.

The Negro office is the place to get your job work done neat, cheap and prompt.

Work was commenced on the Davis bridge pillars this week by Stringer and Donaldson.

Several persons went down to Auraria from Dahlonega last Sunday to attend preaching.

The lot where the beautiful residence of Maj. Batsenger now stands once sold for a pair of boots.

Scott Chapman, who was sentenced to the penitentiary more than three weeks ago is still here in jail.

Several old soldiers were anticipating going to the Charleston reunion from Dahlonega but none of them got off.

Big May meetings are being held in different portions of the county which are enjoyed by both the old and the young.

Most of the farmers have about caught up with their work. They have been putting in good time since having an opportunity.

Mrs. J. C. West returned to her home in Atlanta last Saturday after spending some four or five weeks in Dahlonega with her parents—Colonel and Mrs. Price.

No one from Dahlonega attended the big confederate reunion in Charleston this week. Col. Price was aiming to go but his son, Lieut. Fred Price, came home on a short furlough and it was much more pleasure for the Colonel to be with his son than to go to Charleston.

A short time before court convened recently a defendant who had been bound over for arson, paid a couple of lawyers—a good horse—in advance to take charge of his case, and when court convened there was no one brought in to testify against him and the grand jury was powerless to act. So the man is minus a horse which shows that it is always best never to be in a hurry.

Monday night the Corona Society gave a public entertainment at college. The program consisted of the following: Bible reading, by Miss Madie Witt; Essay on Sydney Lamer by Miss Eya McKee; Reading, "The Song of the Chatelohoechee," by Miss Oma Whalbechee; and recitations by Misses Blanch Gurley, Cora Byers, Maggie Crismon, Lizzie Castleberry and Daisy Sherman. Miss Jennie Byers was president of the meeting and Miss Marie Gaillard secretary. The entertainment was splendid, exhibiting the talent of our North Georgia girls.

There was preaching out at Pleasant Ridge church, some two miles from Dahlonega last Sunday but those who attended for the purpose of serving the Lord were disturbed by the whisky drinkers to such an extent that they didn't get to enjoy themselves much. Two women—one married and the other a single woman were among the disturbers who went from town to have a big time. The married woman went fully prepared to enjoy herself, having left her baby with a negro neighbor. They made such a racket that the preacher threatens to prosecute them. They even remained on the ground with their "spices" after services ended and cursed and reared so that Henry Dyre, who lives more than a quarter of a mile from the church heard them and went over to see what it meant. Such shames were never heard of before about a church. A long eared mule passed along during the time which was so disgusted that it dropped its head and traveled on as fast as possible. We will tell you what those church members should do: Organize a whipping club and the next time their church is visited by any drunken women give them such a whipping as to make it more comfortable for them to stand up for some time afterwards.

The people know where to get bargains and are going to Halls.

The daily mail is now getting in on good time. Let it continue to do so.

Mr. M. Kingsbury was up from Auraria a short while last Tuesday.

Clyde Meaders was bitten on the chin the other day by his horse. It cut a gash more than an inch long.

Fresh line of Heinz's pickles, chaw chaws, chili sauce, prepared mustards, peas, onions, etc., at Halls. Also a fine line of canned goods.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the college last Tuesday Prof. H. J. Gaeitner, of Newnan, was elected to take charge of the department of mathematics. While Prof. Ansted was re-elected to his same position.

Last Tuesday while a little boy of Sheriff Davis was cutting off the limb of a tree to get a birds nest the hatchet fell, striking Tom McGee on the top of his head cutting a gash about two inches long. It was certainly a dangerous accident but fortunately not of a serious nature. The wound was dressed by Dr. Jones and the boy is getting along all right.

Capt. Eugene Mayne, director of the Georgia British corporation, has returned from London after an absence from this section of nearly two years. Mr. Mayne says that he has come to revive the business of the company again. He is accompanied by John Henry Crawford, one of London's financiers, who has come over to investigate the gold mining property held by this company.

D. A. London, formerly of this county but now of Dawson, was in to see us last Tuesday. He is one of the members of the London G. M. Co., and the object of his visit was to secure some pipe to be used in working a rich placer mine in that county, which they hope to get ready for operation by the first of next month. They have already cut six miles of ditch and built 700 feet of fluming and it will require 600 feet more before they get ready for operation.

The new store of the Dahlonega Consolidated Gold Mining Co. is now open and ready for business with C. W. Satterfield in charge. They have one of the largest and most complete assortment of goods ever brought to Dahlonega and at prices that will interest you. Mr. Satterfield's manner of transacting business is too well known to the people of Lumpkin county to receive any comment from us. Read their advertisement elsewhere in this issue and then give them a share of your patronage. We will assure you that you will be treated right.

It was reported here that Lieut. F. L. S. Price had left for the Philippine Islands last week causing his appearance in Dahlonega last Monday to be a surprise to all his friends. He returned to his post of duty yesterday and will leave for the islands on the 17th inst. We wish him a safe and pleasant journey and trust that the war will soon end so that he may be able to return to his native country. Last Wednesday before he left the edicts were called out and Lieut. Price was given the honor of inspecting them. The college boys love their old schoolmate and feel proud of his success in military honors.

M. W. Pitner, formerly of Dahlonega, was here a day or so this week. He was on his way back to Knoxville, where he is now located from where he brought the remains of Foster Thomaston, (whose death is mentioned on first page) to his home in Union county for burial. As stated elsewhere Thomaston was serving out a sentence for whitecapping and was pardoned the day before he died. Bud Rodgers, another one of the party, who was also convicted and sent to the penitentiary for the same offense and in the same case, being the only two who were convicted, died some time ago.

The Gaddistown mail failed to put in its appearance here last Monday.

Will Vaughn, of Dawsonville, is now handling the yard stick at the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co.'s store. Other clerks will be added as soon as all the goods are received.

The birds have commenced laying and the Sunday School attendance will not be so large for some weeks to come, as some boys can't lose time to go to Sunday School during the birds nest season.

A son of Dora Barnes, residing in the eastern portion of the county was badly burnt a few days ago. He was in the field burning corn stalks when his clothing caught a fire and burned from his body.

Little John Sissum like to have been drowned last Sunday afternoon in the creek down at the Shelving Rock. The water was over his head. He got strangled and was sinking the third time when he was seized and pulled out by Will Ward. This should be a warning to all boys.

The Bigbee property, which is to be sold the first Tuesday in next month, is considered among the best mineral lands in Auraria district. On this property was discovered a vein which was so rich that it had to be guarded both day and night. Doubtless operations will begin on it again at an early day as the property has been hung up in law for a long time, its richness doing no one any good.

Last Friday as Judge Britain was returning from his farm, traveling the old ridge road, he discovered two suspicious looking negroes on the edge of the road about half a mile from town—one yellow and the other black—sitting, or that is one was sitting and the other was lying down. They were strangers to the Judge and eyed him like a hawk as he passed. The Judge reported the matter to the sheriff who went out in company with constable George Walker to see what they meant but they had left out.

Some months ago Floyd Wheelchel and the only daughter of John Marlow were wedded. For awhile they lived happily together, but this didn't last long. So one day during the husband's absence Mrs. Wheelchel decided to go to her parents home and when her husband returned he found himself alone with no one left to share his pleasures or troubles. They then lived in Hall county. Since then Mrs. Wheelchel moved to Dahlonega with her parents. Time and again he has been here begging and pleading to his wife to go back and live with him, but she refuses to go. Last Saturday he came in, bringing another man with him, fully determined to force her to go. He said she was his and he'd be damned if he didn't have her. He got out of his buggy and went to her no doubt aiming to carry her, but he was persuaded by disinterested parties not to carry out his intentions and he again returned to his home with a sad and aching heart.

The Bearden bridge road has been graded from the river to the William Stringer place by way of Parish's as recommended by the last Grand jury. The new route is at least a quarter of a mile shorter than the old route, but the gain in distance is nothing compared with the gain in the grade. About one third of the new road will be on a grade of one to forty, some of it will absolutely be level, some will be one to twenty and a few rods will be one to sixteen. This will be the steepest place in the new road while there are several places in the old road as steep as two and a half to sixteen. The same power required to pull 800 pounds up the old road will pull 2000 pounds up the new road. This will be a great advantage to those who have heavy freight to the railroad. The mail and passenger carriages can travel over the new road much faster than the old. The road on this side of the river has not been graded yet.

J. A. Parker, of Atlanta, came up last week to spend a few days with his friends in this section.

The destructive potato bugs have already made their appearance in some portions of this county.

Col. Farrow and lady, after spending several days in Dahlonega last week went up to Porter on Sunday.

If you wish to spend the summer pleasantly come to Dahlonega. It is one of the most delightful places in this mountain country.

Luther Walker walks and carries the mail from Dahlonega to Half Way office, a distance of sixteen miles there and back, three times a week. He goes out on schedule time and comes in the same way.

Some thief is living fat off of the hard earnings of a few of the citizens of Cane Creek district. Henry Ash, besides losing a shoulder of meat out of his smokehouse recently, finds one of his hogs missing. Others have lost chickens.

You can catch an idea with what magnitude the Dahlonega Consolidated Gold Mining Company means to do business in this section by reading an article on the fourth page of to-day's paper copied from the Toledo News, which paper is published in the city where the company's main office is located now but in the near future will be moved to Dahlonega.

A few days ago a drummer was in Dahlonega who, it is said, was one of the main leaders in the just execution of the negro Holt some days ago down in Georgia, who committed the most outrageous crime in the history of the country. This drummer did the tramping, so it is said. But few of our citizens knew that there was such a woman protector in town. Had it been known by the ladies no doubt they would have felt like stroking his path with flowers.

Two more old confederate veterans received a check each last week for $60 causing much joy in their households, being John Beck and W. S. Cavender, both residing in Dahlonega. Uncle John is getting old and has had to get some assistance from the ordinary and, like all other poor men that are entirely destitute of money or property, had but few friends in need, but on last Thursday when his check came there was quite a change. Instead of being called "Old John Beck," it was Mr. Beck, who had friends on all sides, and his invitations in the stores were numerous. The other veteran is a poor but had never been forced to ask for any of the paupers fund, though he was called "Bill Cavender," now it is Mr. Cavender. Both of these old men will be called Mister as long as their money lasts.

At the present Gainesville is the head of our daily mail line running to that city, but Col. Farrow says that he is going to write to the department and ask that Dahlonega be made the head of the line so that the postmaster here can look after the matter and work to the interest of the people of Dahlonega. Col. Farrow is the first postmaster at Gainesville who has ever made any effort to give the people of Dahlonega a better mail facilities and the Colonel has certainly been successful in giving us a big improvement in this direction. We would be very well contented with the head of the line down there if the Colonel, or some one like him, could always be postmaster, but this can't be expected. Of course the Colonel first looks after his own interest, like any other man. He had a water route established for awhile which didn't suit Dahlonega, but he has done other things in the mail service which were an advantage to our citizens, overbalancing this water route transaction, and we can freely forgive him in this. Gainesville has had postmasters who didn't care whether Dahlonega had any mail at all, judging from their actions.

Rev. Z. Speer, who is now located at Blairsville, was in Dahlonega latter part of last week.

A certain man went down to Gainesville from Lumpkin county recently to make an effort to have his government pension increased, who claimed partial deafness. After a thorough examination by the board of physicians it was discovered that his ears were filled up with dirt.

Chestate district was visited by one of the heaviest hails on Thursday night of last week that we ever heard of in this county. At Uncle Caleb Seabolt's it fell to a depth of nine inches, some of the stones being as large as hen eggs. It hailed from dark until nine o'clock and next morning you could have loaded wagons with the stones. It is believed by some that much of the timber will die on account of being bruised up so badly.

The shooting and yelling about over the public square and streets by some one last Saturday night, lasting until after twelve o'clock, reminded us that we were in the wild west and that some of the cow boys had come to town. If these parties were arrested and fined heavily and then bound over to the Superior Court it would soon put a stop to such rackets as last Saturday night and the citizens could take their rest without being disturbed.

The Colored Old Fellows of Dahlonega marched from their hall to the church last Sunday where a sermon was delivered by one of their members, Rev. Samuel Goudlock, which was listened to with much interest by a large congregation composed of both white and black, as all were anxious to hear what Sam would have to say on this occasion. The members wore their full regalia and had a little goat in the procession causing it to be very amusing to all spectators who had never ridden one in a secret order.

On Wednesday night of last week some two or more persons broke into the store house of G. W. Walker, near Porter Springs and carried off $51 in money and $200 worth of notes. Thirty of it being in gold and the rest was in silver and greenback. The store is in one end of the house occupied by John Porter. Porter was away from home but the rest of his family were there and heard them entering but were afraid to raise the alarm for the heavy locks made on the door with a big ax proved that the thieves meant business and it would have been dangerous for any one to have attacked them unless well armed. They chopped the lock and the hinges off of the heavy door and went in and took possession and remained until they got all they wanted. Parties have been spotted and Geo. Walker, Jr., and Sheriff Davis propose to pay $10 for any information which will lead to their conviction.

It being reported that Rev. D. M. Edwards would give a lecture last Saturday night on lynching we went down to the church to hear what he would have to say on a subject which is being discussed at great length by every newspaper both north and south. The attendance was small however as Saturday night is a bad time to get much of a crowd together unless it is to attend some slight of hand show. The preacher didn't touch upon lynching but selected the subject "Revenge" for discussion, quoting quite a number of passages of scripture showing that we must forgive those doing us an injury instead of seeking some way to get revenge—that we must "love our neighbor as thyself." It is true that this is scripture but all the preachers in the world couldn't get a person to love some of their neighbors, especially if they have mean chickens. Then there is another thing in the Bible that is seldom ever carried out which is to "pray for your enemies." Preachers tell us to do this, but we never heard one of them do so yet. It may be that they discharge this duty privately.

The News congratulates those who were so fortunate as to secure even a small portion of this stock. It is safe to predict that not one dollar of it can be had a par by January 1, 1900.—Toledo News.

Just a Cough

Not worth paying attention to, you say. Perhaps you have had it for weeks. It's annoying because you have a constant desire to cough. It annoys you also because you remember that weak lungs is a family failing. At first it is a slight cough. At last it is a hemorrhage. At last, extremely difficult.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

quickly conquers your little hacking cough. There is no doubt about the cure now. Doubt comes from neglect. For over half a century Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been curing colds and coughs and preventing consumption. It cures Consumption also if taken in time.

Keep one of Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Plasters over your lungs if you cough.

Shall we send you a book on this subject, free? Our Medical Department. If you have any complaint what we can do for you. Write to the doctor freely. You will receive a prompt reply, without cost. Address, DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

A Missouri girl punched both eyes out of a tramp's head with her parasol because he tried to bug her, says an exchange. The Missouri girls, like all other people doubtless enjoy being humbugged, but they draw the line when it comes to being humbugged.

A physician says people who sleep with their mouths shut live the longest. If some parts of this country people who know how and when to keep their mouths shut when awake live the longest, too. Many a fellow has taken a sudden departure by opening his mouth at the wrong time.

A very peculiar story comes from Montreal, Can. Seven years ago a boy had an eye injured. It could not be saved and went out. Lately it was feared by the attending oculist that it would put the other eye out. The oculist placed the patient under the influence of an anesthetic, and made the fearful mistake of taking out the sound eye. No such a case has come to our attention before.

The negroes can accomplish nothing by espousing the cause of Hose, nor can the whites gain anything by indorsing the work of the mob. Two monstrous crimes were committed, both of which are a serious reflection upon civilization. The better class of whites and blacks can well afford to unite and exert their influence in removing the cause which results in such frightful savagery as that which stains the good name of Georgia.—Americus Times-Recorder.

I have been suffering from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have used all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found one remedy that has been a success as a cure, and that is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.—P. E. GIBBS, Ga. Mills, La. For sale by F. W. Hall Mds Co.

Local Dots.

Keep your eye on Dahlonaga and watch her move on the road of progress.

You will find shoes for the big, little, old and young at Copelands at prices that will suit you.

The Marshal has been busy most of the time since court getting the roads and streets in good shape.

Everything goes to show that there is a bright future in store for Dahlonaga and Lumpkin county.

We heard a commercial drummer remark the other day that Dahlonaga was building up faster than any town he knew of.

Mr. Breyman, the Ohio gentleman who we mentioned last week as spending a day in looking over some of the iron beds, expressed himself as being highly pleased with the outlook.

We understand that Geo. Jenkins and Miss Fannie Hulsey, who left Dahlonaga some time ago, were married at Belton recently and are now living happily together at the Hamby mine in White county.

Meaders & Sons have put up a big livery stable sign on the corner of the street at their store. We look for some greenhorn to drive into their store some time as it is the nearest building to the sign.

James B. Anderson has the contract for the digging of the holes for the telephone line from Dahlonaga to Gainesville at ten cents each. Arrangements are being made with the farmers along the line to furnish the posts. Those already contracted for cost from 25 to 30 cents a post. The hole digging commenced Monday.

An effort was made to change the time of holding the Dahlonaga camp meeting this year and arrange it so that Rev. D. M. Edwards, who has business at Dawson Superior Court could attend, but a majority of the tent holders were opposed to it and the meeting will convene at the usual time.

Our city fathers should make some arrangements to have more horse racks or hitching posts put up so as to accommodate our country friends who wish to visit town. Offer all the inducements you can to our farmers, for without them we would all perish. Other towns do this, and why not Dahlonaga?

There seems to be a small sensation over in shoal creek district, which has just come to light. Not long since a certain merchant in that section proposed to present a certain married woman, whose husband was in Atlanta jail, a two and a half cent ball of knitting thread as a token of his love for her in her troublesome and lonely condition. The lady told him to take his thread and go to h—l with it.

As will be seen elsewhere a number of business men have made application for a charter to be known as the "Dahlonaga Railway Company," which was filed in the clerk of the Superior Court's office in Dahlonaga this week. The gentlemen making this application are: J. W. Adams, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Geo. H. Breyman and Frank R. Thomson, Toledo, Ohio; J. W. Smith, Pontiac, Mich.; H. D. Ingersoll, H. D. Gurley, J. F. Moore, F. W. Hall, W. P. Price and W. A. Charters, Dahlonaga.

It is proposed to build an electric line to either Lula or Gainesville as early as possible. The gentlemen are very jubilant over the matter and think that the day is not far distant when Dahlonaga and one or the other of the two places mentioned will be connected by rail. Some of the non residents have made a thorough investigation and are fully satisfied that a line of this kind will pay well.

ASK YOUR DOCTOR!

Ask your physician this question, "What is the one great remedy for consumption?" He will answer, "Cod-liver oil." Nine out of ten will answer the same way.

Yet when persons have consumption they loathe all fatty foods, yet fat is necessary for their recovery and they cannot take plain cod-liver oil. The plain oil disturbs the stomach and takes away the appetite. The disagreeable fishy odor and taste make it almost unendurable. What is to be done?

This question was answered when we first made of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. Although that was nearly twenty-five years ago, yet it stands alone today the one great remedy for all affections of the throat and lungs.

The bad taste and odor have been taken away, the oil itself has been partly digested, and the most sensitive stomach objects to it rarely. Not one in ten can take and digest the plain oil. Nine out of ten can take SCOTT'S EMULSION and digest it. That's why it cures so many cases of early consumption. Even in advanced cases it brings comfort and greatly prolongs life.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

An Indiana girl answered an advertisement of a New York firm the other day offering for twenty-five cents to send a receipt for a sure cure for freckles. She sent her quarter and this is what she got: "Remove the freckles, very carefully with a putty knife, soak them in very salty water for ever night, then hang them up in the smokehouse in a good, strong smoke made of sawdust and slippery elm bark, for about a week. Freckles thus treated never fail to be thoroughly cured."

A little boy was required to write an essay the other day, "The Newspaper" was the subject, and here is the result: "I don't know how newspapers came to be in the world. I don't think God does. For he hasn't got nothing to say 'bout them, and 'editors' is not in the bible. I think the editor is one of the missing links you hear about, and stayed in the brush till after the flood, then come out and wrote the thing up, and has been here ever since. I don't think he ever dies; I never saw a dead 'un and never heard of one getting licked. Our paper is a mighty poor 'un; the editor goes 'bout underclothes all winter, don't wear no socks, and Pa hasn't paid his subscription in five years."

Whooping Cough.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. Core, South Burgettsown, Pa. For sale by F. W. Hall Mds Co.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, MAY 19, '99.
Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O.
as Second Class Matter.

There were 28 deaths from the Philadelphia and Reading wreck on the 12th.

Gen. John B. Gordon has again been elected commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans' Association.

A gentleman has a force of hands engaged near Columbus, Ga., in getting out white oak timber to be shipped to Spain.

A negro was scalded near to death in Macon the other day by trying to smoke a cigarette while handling a can of gasoline.

The Nebraska Infantry at Manila is broken down from hard campaigning and has petitioned to be temporarily relieved from duty at the front.

An official report shows that the total number of American troops in the Philippine Islands having small pox 181, deaths 77. Cases of varioloid, 88; deaths, none.

In Albany the other day all the stores and offices were closed and a big crowd of both black and white attended the funeral of Frank W. McCarthy, a prominent negro.

Gus Copeland was shot and killed by a negro near Odum, Ga., the other night while trying to decoy the negro's wife from the house. The negro did right, if this report is true.

The beef investigation which has been going on for some time will likely go before Congress. This beef matter is an imposition upon the people because they are taxed to keep up such frauds.

The Confederate veterans reunion at Charleston has come to a close. It opened by Gen. Gordon hugging Mr. Stonewall Jackson on the stage and closed by a good deal of just such "red tape."

Athens now has the small pox scare on account of a South Carolina negro appearing in that city with an insolated case. He was sent out of town together with all those who associated with him.

The treasurer of the colored Odd Fellows at Gainesville skipped out the other day with a lot of money belonging to the lodge but he was followed and brought back. Riding the goat didn't make a good negro out of him.

On the fourth page will be found the views of a Northern editor about the recent lynching in Georgia. Read it. You will find it one of the most interesting articles ever written about the horrible outrage by a northern gentleman. He believes in protecting helpless women.

President McKinley is now at Hot Springs and a press dispatch of the 12th inst says: "President McKinley indulged in another bath to-day. The President spends most of his time seated on the veranda with his wife." This item of news (?) shows that all the newspaper fool correspondents are not dead yet.

One night last week Robt. F. Davis, who lived one mile from Beatur, was called from his bed by a black brute at midnight and fatally shot. The would be murderer then made his escape. Uncle "Lynch" should investigate the matter and if he catches up with the black scamp put an end to his career in short order.

It seems that Gov. Candler was slighted at the reunion at Charleston last week because he declared that the south honored Grant, Sherman and McClellan, even as it honored Lee, Jackson and Davis, "because they were all Americans worthy of honor." This assertion was a big mistake of the Governor, simply because the south cannot honor those who caused desolation and ruin in their paths like those that fought and defended the cause which they believed to be right.

Mining Notes.

We should have said last week that the clean up at the Stewart mine recently was twenty-eight ounces and a half instead of twenty and a half.

While Capt. Asbury was in town the other day he showed us quite a nice lot of gold taken out of a mine on Cayenders' Creek. He crushed three tons and got fifty-six penny-weights.

Some forty or fifty hands are now at work at the Hamby mine in White county. Twenty of these are Lumpkin county miners. Most of the work requires blasting, but it is run both day and night and pays well.

The power of attorney from the Georgia British Co. to John Henry Crawford, of London, was filed in the office of clerk of the Superior Court of Lumpkin county last Tuesday. This looks more like business.

The Street mine still continues good. The two foot vein discovered last week is worth about six dollars to the painful, saying nothing of the rich sulphurets. Only one shift is run at this mine but it requires a man of nights to keep the water down.

Geo. F. Case, of Detroit, Michigan, was here this week, being the second time he has been to our town. He has become interested in one of Lumpkin's valuable gold mines—being the Skyrn property, so we are informed, located over on Long Branch. The trade has already been made and the money deposited with Capt. Hall, which will be paid over as soon as the papers can be signed up.

John L. Burns, of Ohio, was put in charge of a large number of hands last Wednesday down at the Hand preparing the mill site for the 120 stamp mill, taking out ore, etc. The number of hands employed at this mine now is between 45 and 50. John L. Burns, Jr., will arrive here from Ohio to-morrow and take charge of his father's interest in the Street gold mine.

A very rich deposit mine has been discovered on property belonging to Young Grindle, a few miles above town by Thomas Beasley and his son Wesley. In five days last week these two men made seventy pennyweights and rolled the dirt and gravel about one hundred and fifty yards to water. The deposit is about thirty yards wide and occasionally they find rock containing gold. They showed us one small rock last Saturday which had a piece of gold sticking to it weighing about one pennyweight, besides showing much other to the natural eye. If they strike the vein, which feeds this deposit they will certainly have a big bonanza.

Capt. Eugene Mayne, of London, who is well known in this section, made his appearance in Dahlonega last Friday afternoon after an absence of near two years, accompanied by John Henry Crawford, who is said to be one of London's financiers, both looking after the mining industry of this country. A few years ago Mr. Mayne had options on thousands of acres of mineral lands lying in Lumpkin and adjoining counties. These have expired and we understand that the object of his visit now is to have them renewed for a short time. The best and cheapest way for those wishing to invest is to investigate the property, select what they want and then buy it at once.

The gin house and two gins were burnt down in Hall county last Sunday night belonging to Mattox & Martin, being the work of an incendiary.

Comex has informed Brooke that he can no longer represent Cuban army. Cuban army must reach decision at once. If they decide not to accept the $3,000,000 and disband peacefully without further delay they will be disbanded and disbanded by force.

Capt. Adams, President of the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co., has spent several days here this trip looking after the company's interest.

Commencement Program.

The following is the program for the commencement exercises which begin June 3rd and continue until the evening of the 7th:

Wednesday 9:30, a. m., Sophomore Declamation; Oration of the day, Hon. J. B. Estes.

Wednesday 5, p. m., Inspection and Review.

Wednesday 8, p. m., Junior and Senior Oration, Baccalaureate Address, delivery of diplomas, licenses to teachers and awarding of medals.

Winnie Roach, a mulatto woman, came near being lynched in Atlanta by an angry mob last Tuesday night, the crime for which she and her husband were charged was brutally burning their four little children nearly to death by igniting paper, saturated with kerosene, with which their bodies had been wrapped. One of the children had all the flesh burned from her legs in several places and will die. The husband ran away. Now let those Atlanta preachers who are so opposed to lynching, have a meeting of condemnation on this matter.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, GA., MAY 10, 1909.

The weather is getting dry and warm.

James H. Worley has been sick for several days.

Strawberries are ripe and the country editor is happy.

J. H. Moore continues making improvements at his premises.

The telephone office will likely be located in the office of the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co.

Program for the college commencement exercises will be found elsewhere in this issue.

W. H. McAfee went down to Gainesville last Tuesday with Capt. Mayne and Mr. Crawford.

Judge Tate says that he does not expect to have any new roads made until the farmers get through with their work.

The rock wall and wire fence in front of the premises of E. W. Strickland adds much to the appearance of his property.

WANTED.—Five hundred bushels of meal at once for which we will pay 70 cents per bushel cash. DAHLONEGA C. G. M. Co.

D. T. Harris, of the Big Joe Mine, spent last Saturday night in Dahlonega, who reports everything moving along all right at his mine.

Quite a number of pleasure seekers from Gainesville who had been out in the mountains for several days, passed through Dahlonega last Tuesday on their return home.

It is reported here that Gabe Bryan, who went from this county to the West some years ago, died out there recently. Also Mrs. Lula Stringer, a daughter of W. C. Walker.

John Hester, one of the parties who has been in jail for a few weeks charged with stealing a copper plate from the Mary Henry mill some time ago, made a forthcoming bond this week.

In our reference to the electric railway on first page we should have said that application for a charter would be filed in the office of secretary of state instead of office of Clerk of the Superior Court.

A fight occurred a few days ago up in Chostate district between Mrs. Ben Ravan and Mrs. Babe Ledford together with other female relatives of theirs. Warrants were sworn out and the first two named were bound over to the Superior Court, so we understand.

G. McGuire has been having the Wimpy mill repaired. Last Tuesday they turned the water out of the dam and cleared away the sand from the wheels which caused one of them to stop, accumulating from the Crescent stamp mill which is located above.

R. C. Thomson, secretary and treasurer of the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co. arrived in our town last Monday afternoon in company with his wife. Mr. Thomson will return to Toledo, Ohio, for the purpose of packing his things and getting ready to move to Dahlonega right away.

Last Tuesday morning little Geo. Sissam came rushing into the office with his eyes sparkling with delight who stated that he had come to tell us the news. The first thought which struck us was that some great warrior had arrived. But lo and behold it turned out to be a big girl baby who had just put in its appearance down at David Franklins.

Mr. Landrum, a Hall county farmer, brought another load of sweet potatoes to Dahlonega last Tuesday for which he received 55 cents per bushel. This is his last load. He says that he raised near six hundred bushels of potatoes last year. This shows that potato raising pays well in this section. Several of our farmers residing near the foot of the Blue Ridge in Lumpkin county have been following the business for years and find it a profitable industry.

See tax notice of tax receivers last round elsewhere.

Another car load of hay just received by J. F. Moore.

Teachers attention are called to County School Commissioners notice elsewhere.

By looking over our advertising columns you will see that the Nugget is well thought of at home.

H. D. Jaquish, of Gainesville, Mr. Whorton, of the Calhoun, and Col. Thomas F. Greer, of Ellijay were among the visitors here last Friday.

Remember that no division is made in any advertisements with the Signal except the legal sales, unless there is special arrangements made.

The Hand ditch will be changed from its present bed and run through tubes near James Smiths and through Meaders lot beyond Crane's Hill.

As soon as Capt. Hall returned from Florida last week he employed a number of carpenters and went right to work in making improvements.

John and Will Anderson have opened out a blacksmith shop at the old Wootton stand where they will be pleased to have a call from those desiring any work done in their line. Their ad will appear next week.

It is said that salt water will kill the potato bugs which are now giving our farmers and gardeners so much trouble. Paris Green will also kill them but some people are afraid to use it on account of it being poison.

Mr. Hutson, of Gainesville, has been employed to make brick for the plant to be constructed by the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co. at the Hand. It requires some three or four hundred thousand for this work. Then he will likely furnish brick for the building which is to be erected at the college this summer, work on which will commence at an early day.

Saturday morning Dr. W. E. Boggs, chancellor of the University of Georgia, lectured at the college. His lecture aimed at showing the value of a college education. He referred to the progress which the negro is making in the higher institutions and ended with a comment on the University of Georgia, showing that it compares favorably with the great universities of the North.

Friday night Col. H. W. J. Ham of Gainesville, lectured at the college before the students and citizens of the town. His subject was "A Georgia Cracker," and from the beginning to the end the lecture abounded in the most vivid scenes of life among the common people of Georgia. He gave a pleasing account of the good old days before the war when the nigger lived peacefully on a large plantation and was subject to the advice, instruction and control of his white master.

The students of the college have endorsed the following statement: "N. G. A. COLLEGE DAHLONEGA, GA., May 12, 1909.

To whom it may concern.

We the undersigned students of the N. G. A. college have received much benefit from the instruction given by Professor J. E. Witherspoon in the Mathematics Department of this institute and as we like both the man and his teaching we adopt this method of expressing our regret that he is no longer our instructor."

Saturday night the Oratorical Association met at the college to contest for the honor of representing the college in the next annual contest of the State Oratorical Association to be held in Atlanta next October. J. W. West was president of the meeting and A. W. Cain secretary. The following gentlemen entered the contest: Captain H. D. Gurley, Jr., Sergeant R. L. Johnson, Adjutant A. Byers, Sergeant F. H. McCleskey and Captain W. M. Smith. The judges awarded the honor to Sergeant McCleskey of Cobb county.

Capt Joseph Allen spent a day or so in Gainesville last week.

Bananas and lemons at E. S. Copelands.

Mr. R. Palmour, of Dawson county, spent last Sunday in Dahlonega.

Frank Meaders and Miss Birdie Meaders went up to Mossy Creek commencement last Sunday.

The tank at the jail has at last been fixed so that it will supply the building with water.

Jap Williams went across the mountain last Saturday to look after his interest in a Justice Court trial.

Two weeks from next Sunday until commencement, at which time a large number of visitors are expected.

Uncle Fred Boatfield, after being confined to his room for a long time, who at one time was not expected to recover, was able to walk to church last Sunday.

Occasionally a fellow will drop into Dahlonega who don't like the place. All such can leave out as soon as they see proper, for we can very easily get along without them.

The Dahlonega Railway Company hopes to get the electric line completed time enough to bring the machinery to be used by the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co., which is near a million pounds.

Dahlonega is going to have a telephone sure and it is expected that she will soon have electric lights, a bank and a railroad. Three cheers for old Dahlonega and all her energetic citizens.

The much talked of belled buzzard was seen passing over near town the other day by Alfred Walker. This time it wore a small sheep's bell and seemed to be traveling along with all ease.

Dr. Whelchel and Rev. D. M. Edwards went across the mountain latter part of last week to fish for mountain trout, both of whom were very much delighted with their trip. They killed thirteen squirrels and caught 44 fish.

A gentleman is expected here from Atlanta in a few days to make a calculation and see what it will cost Capt. Hall to light up his premises and all others desiring it in Dahlonega, with electric lights. He already has the plant over on his Chastate property some three miles from our town.

Scott Chapman, after remaining in jail three weeks after his sentence was carried off to the penitentiary on Thursday afternoon of last week. Some one should be held accountable for this negligence. If the man's time had have been going on it would have been all right, but according to the sentence his time didn't begin until he reached his destination, and the poor fellow had no way of helping himself. Justice should be done though the heavens fall.

Mr. Breyman, Vice President of the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co., left for his home in Ohio last Sunday. Before doing so, however, he called up the superintendent of the Hand Mine and instructed him to secure at least twenty five more hands the next morning and give them good wages. This is the kind of men—men who feel that a laborer is worthy of his hire—we like to see become interested in our country, and we trust that all such will be well rewarded in all their efforts.

The picnic season is on us. It used to be that they were had for the purpose of little children enjoying themselves but of late years they are often turned into a court-judging expedition by many of the older ones. We don't go much on picnics of late. We have known of at least three girls who have come to grief by going to picnics, while the destroyers of their happiness for life would go to church and put on a long face and sing loud enough to almost cause you to think that they wanted to be holed in China.

Rev. A. F. Norton, of Lula, arrived in the city last Wednesday.

The commencement music will be furnished by the U. S. band from Atlanta.

H. D. Gurley, agent for Longman & Martinez paints. Cheapest and best paint on earth.

Lost.—One pair gold spectacles (cable wire temples). Ample rewarded by returning to H. D. Gurley.

There are now fourteen stores in Dahlonega and no doubt this number will increase before another year rolls round.

The target practice of the college cadets has closed and young Lance, a son of J. K. P. Lance of Lumpkin county, did the best shooting and will get the prize.

Remember that a cross mark on your Nugget means that your subscription to the same has expired and you are requested to renew the same if you wish to continue reading it.

There is certainly going to be a big building boom in Dahlonega this summer. The largest building will be the Bostwick Hall at the college which will cost about six thousand dollars.

Some unknown person stuck his knife into Jess Turner's cows back Tuesday night and cut a gash near a foot long. The cow was lying in the edge of the road doing no one any harm.

J. B. Anderson and W. H. McAfee have both been limping for several days, from the effects of nails which they stepped on while at work. Nails are dangerous. We have heard of several dying from lock jaw caused by stepping on nails.

Our patronage has far exceeded our expectations and if it continues to increase we will give you a seven column paper in a short time. We mean for our readers to be supplied with a certain amount of reading matter, besides we intend to accommodate all those wishing to bring their business before the public in the columns of the Nugget.

A fellow came up from Atlanta last Sunday after his son who went to college. The reports sent to the father from the faculty showed that his son was taking no interest in his studies. This made the old man mad who said that his intention was to use a switch on some one, but as the liquor in him died down he got cool and went away without even insulting a single person. We guess this was best for but few people in the mountains are ever lashed with a whip. They believe it is too cruel.

A good deal of valuable town property has changed into the hands of the Dahlonega C. G. M. Company this week and the cash paid down for the same. This Company has bought the property belonging to J. M. Brooksher, opposite its store, and the house and lot of G. W. Bruce adjoining the Brooksher property. Also the lot opposite Ben Anderson's barn belonging to Capt. Woodward, as far down as his stables and enough of his resident lot to make the street between Rice and Woodward 48 feet wide. The Company already owned the land on this thoroughfare a quarter of a mile from town. We understand that the Company proposes to put this street in good condition as far out as a mile. The property clear out on this proposed street owned by this Company and others would make nice building lots, which no doubt in the near future will be dotted with beautiful residences and made one of the prettiest places in Dahlonega. This Company means business. It would not, in our opinion, buy property and fix to widen the streets if it didn't expect to run the electric cars up by Woodward and Rice's and have the depot near the Company's store. Watch and see if we are not right.

Send in your money if you wish to read the Nugget.

The recent demand for labor has considerably reduced the membership of the "Sons of Rest."

Mr. Frank Reed, of Chicago, was among the visitors here last week inspecting the gold mines.

WANTED.—Several stone masons. Apply to the office of H. D. Ingersoll, Gen. Manager Dahlonega C. G. M. Co.

It is useless to go to the expense of having a marshal and to arrest any body unless the fines imposed are promptly collected. There are persons going at large now who were sentenced a month or two ago to pay fines, who have not yet done so and we understand say that they don't expect to do so either.

One day last week while Henry Lee was plowing at his home in Hightower district his horse ran away passing over one of his little children with the plow stock without even touching the little one, but the animal didn't stop until it ran off of a bluff and was so badly injured that it will likely die.

It is reported that Harris Postell broke into a small house down at the Crescent mine a few nights ago and carried away some things belonging to R. W. Walker, the superintendent of the mine. He was notified that a warrant would be sworn out for him and he lit out for parts unknown. Harris, if he keeps on, will sooner or later reach the chain gang.

The summer fights commenced last Saturday afternoon, being opened by Van Crow and Herchel Harris in the outskirts of town. A messenger was sent in after the marshal who went to the front and caused the participants to come in and see if Mayor Price was pleased or displeased. He stated that he was displeased and that it would take $3 each to please him. Later on as the clock in the steeple was striking twelve Marion Chester, Bob Barker and Luster Cavender discussed about something which resulted in a collision. Chester struck Cavender over the head with a small stick, causing Bob Barker's dander to rise who cast a flint at Chester's head, which missed its aim and Barker left out faster than he was ever known to go before.

The oldest record of any thing that we know of concerning the actions of the council in Dahlonega is January 1st, 1850, which is yet in the council chamber. It is very interesting. We notice in that year the names of many people, some being familiar while others are not. All have long since gone to their reward except one and that is John Huff, who still lives near Dahlonega. At that time there was no mayor but a chairman who acted as such. On January 15th, 1850, the following persons chosen to take charge of the town were qualified: Alexander Atway, Jacob H. Smith, Patrick O'Connor and Harrison W. Riley, witnessed by Wm. Martin, J. I. C., and P. O'Connor, J. P. John D. McCrosky was elected marshal whose salary was only $25 per annum. W. Bowling was appointed collector of taxes who received 20 per cent of what he collected. Berry Forest was awarded the contract of cleaning and sweeping the streets that year for $3.05. Pat O'Connor resigned and M. J. Walker, who many of our readers remember afterwards died through fright during a heavy hail storm, was elected in his place. Street tax was 50 cents per day and if a person discharged a pistol in town it cost him 50 cents. A street defaulter had to pay $1.00. John D. Fields, W. B. Rutherford and W. G. Lawrence were overseers of streets for that year. It seems that people disliked to do road duty then as bad as they do to-day. The first street defaulters were, Wm. Kilgo, A. J. Keller, J. A. Moody, Al. Duncan, Lewis Quillian, A. G. Wimpy, Richard McHall, D. N. Martin and James Lawrence. The last one of these old people have passed away.

Jim Tate is closing out a large lot of shoes at near cost.

Mrs. D. W. Stewart went down to Gainesville yesterday.

Will Vaughn will move up from Dawsonville and occupy the Gaddis House.

J. B. Witt is expected here every day from Arizona to keep books for the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co.

Capt. Hall is arranging to move the Dock Hope house back off of the street and repair it.

If you want any of those photographs taken by Mr. Bruce on memorial day call at his gallery at once.

The Nugget does not exaggerate any in its reports about the mines. It is our intention to give only facts.

G. H. McGuire at last decided to buy the lot in rear of the Signal office. He now has a deed to it and will build at once.

E. P. Shall, of New York, and W. A. Danforth, of Concord, N. H., spent several days here this week looking over the mines.

WANTED.—250,000 feet of dimension lumber. Bids will be received until next Wednesday at 4 o'clock. Said lumber to be delivered within 30 days from the time the order is given. H. D. Ingersoll, Gen. Manager, Dahlonega C. G. M. Co.

New faces can be seen in Dahlonega most every day by persons wishing to look over our mining fields, causing those running the hotels to wear broad smiles on account of the success with which they are having in taking care of the weary travelers.

The members of the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co. mean business. It will be seen elsewhere that they want thousands of feet of lumber and a number of stone masons. A large force of hands are already at work and other good laborers wanting employment can get plenty to do here now.

James McGee, living in the eastern portion of the county, was arrested yesterday morning by U. S. Deputy Marshal Grizzle, who is charged with breaking into Grace postoffice one night about the first of April and taking stamped envelopes. About 225 are missing but the officer only found some eight or nine in his trunk. He claimed that he got them from another fellow.

A certain house beyond Crane's Hill has gotten to be a great resort for men and women to meet and drink and frolic and alarm the whole neighborhood two or three nights in each week—guests even gather there for miles around from the country. We heard a party say if the council didn't take notice of it that they intended to appeal to the owners of the house—Dahlonega C. G. M. Co.

It is a little singular that wise councilmen will insist that a tax has to be paid on all dogs in Dahlonega whether running at large or not. By reading the code and charter of Dahlonega they will find that they are mistaken. A man can keep 40 dogs in his lot if he wishes and the law does not give them a right to pass an ordinance taxing them. They have to run at large before any tax can be legally collected on them.

Atlanta, May 15.—Application for a charter will be filed in the office of the secretary of state in a day or two by parties interested in the contemplated road that is to be built from Gainesville, Ga., via Dahlonega, through the counties of Hall, Lumpkin, White, Union, Towns and Rabun to some connecting point with the Southern railway in Tennessee. The road is being built for the purpose of reaching the gold fields of north Georgia and the big marble and granite quarries in that section of the state. It has been practically determined that the motive power of the road is to be electricity, which is to be generated in the northern part of the state by use of water power that runs through the mountains.

Ex-Governor Bob Taylor uttered a whole sermon when he said: "One good, sweet Christian woman in a neighborhood is worth more to that community than fifty sermons, for she is a living sermon the year round."

Isn't it the irony of fate that the burning at the stake of Sunday before last occurred at Newnan, the home of the man, who as Governor pardoned Adolphus Duncan, a negro twice convicted of rape by the courts?—Bainbridge Democrat.

One of the neatest free advertising schemes we have ever seen was perpetrated by a negro newspaper editor in Kansas. With the Sam Hose lynching as a pretext he reviles Georgia and Georgians in a most shocking manner, in his paper and sends one to every newspaper in Georgia for no other reason in the world than get them to "cuss" him back, and thereby get a large number of subscribers in Georgia. He could not expect to get them in the natural way, but falling upon this scheme he has worked it to perfection, and no doubt every negro who could raise a dollar and has read these things our Georgia editors have said about him, has sent on for Childs paper. We guessed at his scheme and threw his paper in the waste basket. He was too far from law for us to shoot at. He got not less than $50,000 worth of the best advertising for his paper money could possibly buy, and he got it for nothing. "What fools these mortals be."—Ex.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for a dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. The Falling Leaves Give Warning of Winter

So the falling of the hair tells of the approach of age and declining power. No matter how barren the tree nor how leafless it may seem, you confidently expect leaves again. And why? Because there is life at the roots. So you need not worry about the falling of your hair, the threatened departure of youth and beauty. And why? Because if there is a spark of life remaining in the roots of the hair.

One of the "human bodies" recently reported to have been found in Pine Log creek in Bartow county turns out to be a dead rabbit, and the suspicion resting on a certain brave, good citizen of that county therefore tumbles to the ground.

Two winters ago young William Byrne of Chicago went to the Klondyke and located a claim. Both of his feet got frost bitten, and he had to return to the states to have them amputated. A few days ago he started back to his claim, walking upon a pair of wooden feet. Byrne says that he will have the advantage of the boys in the diggings next winter, since he cannot suffer from cold feet any more.

It is said that representative Morris of Cobb, will introduce a bill relative to lynchings at the next session of the legislature. Mr. Morris' bill provides for the trial of the accused within five days after his arrest and upon conviction the measure provides for a public hanging five days after. A unique provision of the act is that the testimony of the assailant's victim be taken in private by a special commissioner in the presence of the accused while the trial is in progress.

The small pox has appeared in Randolph district, Jackson county, and is causing much excitement in that section.

Whooping Cough.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. Moore, South Burgettstown, Pa. For sale by F. W. Hall Mdse Co.

Truth Stranger than Fiction.

One of our most esteemed citizens gives the Journal a story that is remarkable in its details and results.

There lived in the county of Franklin, state of Georgia, before the civil war, a rich planter. Among the laborers on his plantation was a very poor white renter who lived in a one-room log hut, but poverty did not prevent him launching out on the sea of matrimony. He and his wife lived happily together, though poverty stricken. About one year after their marriage his wife gave birth to twins. This being enough to attract the attention of the landlord's family, his two daughters visited the cabin and found the poor woman weeping. They asked her the cause, and the woman told them that she had no clothes for the children, nor bed for them. They made clothes for the children and also furnished a little bed, and the woman was happy.

One year later she gave birth to twins again; the young ladies again visited the cabin and found the woman weeping as on the former occasion, and on inquiry she told them that she knew the children would perish, as she had no clothes and no place to lay them. The young ladies again furnished clothing and a small bed.

Fourteen months later the woman gave birth to twins for the third time. The young ladies again visited the cabin, and found the woman more dejected than ever. She told them that her circumstances were no better than at first. The young ladies again acted the good Samaritans and consoled her.

In those days all travel was done by stage coach, and this cabin was on the route of a coach line. Several days after the birth of the third twins, a coach happened to stop at the house for water. One of the passengers was an elderly gentleman, who on hearing of this remarkable family, asked permission to name the last twins, and on being informed of the mother's acceding to his request, he named them and left with their mother a deed to a small piece of land, which he told her was near Dahlonega, Ga., and to give it to the boys when they came of age. She treasured the deed until they reached manhood and then presented it to them. A few years afterward this land developed into one of the richest gold mines in North Georgia, and the two boys are at the present day living and enjoying the proceeds therefrom.

The two young ladies who acted the Good Samaritans, resided in Marietta at one time and their descendants are still living in Marietta.—Marietta Journal.

It is not the easiest thing in the world to be admitted to the bar in Cuba," says the Boston Traveler. "The indispensable requisite in a diploma from the University of Havana, which is a high-class law university. There are two ways of obtaining this. The applicant must either take the five-year course or else he must undergo an examination by the university the same as given to graduates. This diploma, under the old law, cost $500 in gold, and besides this the lawyer must pay $90 a year for the right to practice. The fee of $500 has recently been abolished by order of Gen. Brooke."

Dr. L. C. Bagwell, of Spring Place, Ga., with his three children and an old lady, Mrs. Williams, were all cremated in the burning of his residence at that place on the night of the 9th inst.

Help... Nature

Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME & SODA will generally correct this difficulty.

If you will put from one-fourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emulsion. It will show an effect at once both upon mother and child.

I have been a suffering from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have used all kinds of medicines for it. At last found one remedy that has been a success as a cure, and that is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.—P. E. GRISHAM, Gaits Mills, La. For sale by F. W. Hall Mdse Co.

Gov. Candler has increased the reward for "Cypher" Smith, of Habersham county, who murdered W. B. Bell some time ago to $500. Thomas Bell, a son, has deposited $500 in an Atlanta bank, the citizens of Cleveland have made up a purse of $75 and the Masonic lodge of Cleveland has added $25, which makes $1,100 reward for his arrest.

There is only one law that could stop "mob violence," as the Pecksniffs call it, and that would be a law making it the duty of the sheriff to summons posess and catch the rap, and when caught carry him for identification; when identified the sheriff and his posse to take him out and hang him to the nearest tree. No courts! Let identification be final judgement, and the sheriff's posse the legal executioners. Our southern women should not go into court in such cases—Dalton Argus.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, MAY 26, '99.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Will Meeks, of Union county, recently lost two of his toes by the accidental discharge of a shot gun. The Blue Ridge World was a little behind time last week on account of its editor attempting to ride a bicycle.

A stock company has been organized and the ice factory which was destroyed in Gainesville recently, will be rebuilt within thirty days.

It was first announced that the Cuban soldiers would get $100 each. Now it is said our three million dollars will only give them $75 each.

It is said that Cowetta county negroes are plotting to organize and avenge the burning of Sam Holt. If they should attempt it a lot of Gatling guns should be secured by the whites and put into use.

Will Williams, colored who murdered L. P. Peacock, a white man, was executed at McRae on the 20th. Generally the negro murderers claim that they are on their way to heaven but this one didn't say anything about it. We guess that he has gone the other route.

A car load of chickens were shipped from Bell's, Tenn., to New Orleans Thursday, netting $1,650. The chicken business amounts to as much nearly to the United States as the cotton crop. Wouldn't it pay better to raise hens at 30 cents, the lowest market price, than 3 cents cotton?—Crocket County Sentinel.

Mrs. James Wood, living near Rockmart, Ga., shot and killed a negro the other night who was trying to force his way into where she was through a window. The steady nerve and good aim of this good woman saved her from being outraged. Will the Atlanta preachers want to convene on this occasion?

If it disgraces a man to die rich few among us are in danger of incurring that reproach. Meanwhile most men would find it extremely comfortable to live rich—not necessarily very rich, but rich enough to take a little oftener and for longer periods the advice of Horace Greeley to "quit work and go fishing."—Ex.

Hall county is fixing so that her officers can give justice. A $50 court house is to be built in each malitia district with a chimney. This example should be followed in Lumpkin. There are several districts in the county without court houses, and the others have no chimneys. How can we expect justice when an officer has to sit on a snowy log in the winter and pretends to dish it out?

The blockaders will smile when they learn that a bill will be introduced at the next session of the Georgia legislature at the instance of the Bibb county Anti-Barroom Association prohibiting the sale of liquor in the state of Georgia. This anti-barroom business on the part of some of the members of the legislature has gotten to be a fraud. We have known members to go to the legislature pretending to be in favor of it who would return home drunk.

Messrs. W. P. Dearing and Born of Atlanta, were in the city this week in the interest of an electric line from Gainesville to Dahlonega. They want to secure a charter and will very probably make application for it at an early date. As things now stand there are two separate companies at work to secure a charter over almost identically the same route. What the outcome of the matter will be no one can say, but very likely the application already filed will be given precedence. Railroad talk in Gainesville is livelier now than it ever was before, and it is believed that it will surely result in a road to the mountains.—Ga. Cracker.

Mining Notes.

All mining operations in this section are moving along as usual, making money, otherwise they would suspend operation.

Messrs. Frank Moore and Joe Clements went out last Wednesday to see the rich Grindle mine who reported it to be a most excellent one. It is under a thirty days option.

Col. J. H. Moore has been engaged for several days in prospecting on Fred Price's lot the other side of the college. He has struck some very good ore but is in search of the rich Street vein which he is satisfied runs through the property.

The Dahlonega C. G. M. Company are doing much work down at the Hand mine. They already have between 50 and 75 hands at work taking out ore, preparing the mill site, etc., and we learn that the company expects to employ at least 200 hands in a short time. The mill site is 250 square.

We understand that Mr. John B. Atkinson, who came here a few days ago to look after his mining interest was highly pleased with its management. His general superintendent, Mr. C. J. Norwood, thoroughly understands the work which he has in his charge and is a man who attends to his own business and lets other people's alone.

Capt. Mayne and Mr. Crawford, who were here a few days ago are now in Gilmer county renewing their options on mineral property in that section. It is their intention to reach London by the 10th of June, when preparations will be made to buy all the property bargained for in Lumpkin and adjoining counties and in the near future open up the biggest mining business ever known in this section.

Mr. Z. B. Hargrove, of Acworth, who has been down on his property near Auraria prospecting for several weeks, came up last Saturday and purchased the interest which Mrs. Tilda Findley had in the same. We understand that a company will be organized for the purpose of commencing active operation on this property at once by putting up a ten stamp mill and doing such other work as is necessary to get it in good shape for working.

Mr. Kingsbury came up from Auraria last Saturday and spent a few hours in Dahlonega. This gentleman is still engaged in mining and of course it pays or he wouldn't continue the business. Mr. Kingsbury says that he has one of the best deposit mines on what is known as the Kearns property, in this country. The only drawback is the insufficiency of water to work it, but an outlay of a reasonable amount of money will remove this obstacle.

Honor Roll.

The college honor roll for May is as follows:

Senior class: B. G. Parks.

Junior class: A. W. Cain, H. D. Gurley, Jr., R. L. Johnson, F. H. McClesky, H. L. Peacock, W. M. Smith.

Sophomore class: Miss Fannie Gaillard, Miss Eva McKee, J. W. West, and S. A. Harris.

Freshman class: A. H. McClesky, W. J. McKee and Lee Sasseboe.

"A" class: Miss Jennie Byers, J. R. Byers, Miss Mattie Harris, Leo Little and F. C. Powell.

"B" class: Miss Madie Witt, Miss Carrie Anderson, Miss Lizzie O'Kelly, Miss Nancy Pierce, Miss Sallie Pierce and C. Perkins.

Last Saturday night a crowd of masked men went to the house of Tom Linton, a negro at a camp creek burst his door in with an axe and shot him twice. He died a few minutes afterwards. Several negroes were whipped by whitecaps that night in that vicinity, and it is believed they intended dealing likewise with Linton, but that he opened fire on them and they shot in self defense.

A report from Manila states that the insurgents only number about 14,000.

You will find South Georgia Ribbon Syrup at B. R. Meaders & Sons a 30 cents per gallon.

A. B. Roberts, of Clarksville, came over last week to see his sons here. The old gentleman has seen 70 winters but is very stout for a man of his age.

Your attention is called to the advertisement of J. H. and W. B. Anderson, two colored men who have opened out a blacksmith shop in the old Wootten stand near the store of J. M. Brookscher.

B. R. Meaders went out to his farm in the eastern part of the county last week and had fifteen or twenty acres sowed in peas. Should a chain gang be established here there would be plenty of this product to feed them on.

Anything you desire in spring goods you will find at J. F. Moore's at prices cheaper than ever before. The boom in Dahlonega has no effect on his prices unless it is to enable him to sell them cheaper.

Farmers are so busy that none of them can stop to get the required posts to build the telephone line to Gainesville and the company decided at a meeting last week to hire men and put them to work doing this at once.

J. J. Roberts, of Jasper, Ga., who has been engaged here for some time in plastering the public school building has completed the job and gone home. It is finished up in a business like manner proving that he thoroughly understands his business.

We had the pleasure of meeting Col. Z. B. Hargrove, of Waycross, last Saturday for the first time, who, as he reached out one hand to give a hearty shake handed us a silver dollar for the Nugget with the other, at the same time stating that it had done more good in building up the country than any thing else. The gentleman is interested in a mine near Auraria and we trust that he will meet with success.

At the Hamby mine in White county last month they offered five prizes for drill strikers running from one dollar on up to five, and every prize, we are pleased to say, was awarded to our Lumpkin county miners, which is quite a feather in their caps considering the large number of hands that are at work at this mine. They were awarded as follows: First prize, Joseph Townsend; second, Will Weaver; third, Hughes Anderson; fourth, Frank Moore; fifth, Dave Howard.

The sign boards for the public school houses throughout the county were made in Gainesville. The people of that city should think well of Dahlonega when their citizens send down there—a distance of twenty-five miles—for nearly everything they need, even to a lot of plank four feet long by twelve inches wide with a two inch strip nailed on them for binding, when they could have been made at home just as well by most any farm hand. Such trades as this is what makes money scarce here.

Lon Childers was arrested last Saturday by Will Rice and Sheriff Davis and lodged in jail where he will likely remain until the next term of Lumpkin Superior Court. He has two cases against him. One is for going into Hightower church on Sunday just before last term of the Superior Court and reciting his Sunday School lesson while drunk with a bottle of liquor in his pocket. Then he went from there to a Mr. Brutes where he picked up an ax and commenced cutting down the hamsters and porch columns.

Dewey is now on his way to America.

The citizens of Titon are now eating ripe peaches.

The next Presbyterian Assembly will be held in Atlanta.

The Athens police caught eleven negro gamblers last Sunday.

Married couples in Norway are privileged to travel on railways at a fare and a half.

The sale of the Soldier's Home in Atlanta has been set aside by Judge Lumpkin because the price was too low.

There are already twenty-eight post offices named Dewey and 300 applications are on file at the post-office department for this name.

Some of the Cuban troops have disbanded and gone home. An order for the distribution of the $3,000,000 has been signed and will be issued soon.

Sheriff Nelms of Fulton county asks for twelve Winchester rifles and 200 rounds of ammunition for the Tower but the commissioners pay no attention to the request.

The national organization of the populist party at Kansas City last week, issued an address urging the party to stand by the middle of the road men and not to fuse with any party.

Ex Gov. Northen made a speech in Boston last Monday and alluded to lynching in Georgia but made no apologies. He said that the cure for lynching was to stop the crime.

George Torrence, superintendent of the Illinois state infirmary in an address last week said that "I am sure that cigarettes are destroying and making criminals of more of the boys than the saloons."

David Roberts, a moonshiner of White county who is well known in Lumpkin died in Atlanta jail the other day while serving out a six months sentence for blockading. His body was sent home for burial.

It is reported that a young negro went to the house of Mr. James Wood, a farmer living near Esom Hill, last week and called to see him. His wife informed him that her husband was not at home. The negro persisted in going to the house. Mrs. Wood told him to stop and closed the door in his face. The negro then made a strong attempt to get in at a window, whereupon she gathered a Winchester rifle and shot. She remained in doors until her husband came home. When he came in she reported to him what she had done, and he investigated and found that she had shot the negro between the eyes, killing him in his tracks.

Low cut shoes at Anderson & Jones for both men and women.

The pillars for the Davis bridge were completed last Tuesday and the contractor will be here next week to put up the bridge.

J. J. Goodram, of Newman, arrived in Dahlonega last Tuesday, who had been summoned to the bedside of his sick mother.

Are you coming to the commencement? It begins next Monday. The program published last week shows that it will be interesting.

Mr. Blalock, one of Gainesville's clothing men spent several days in Dahlonega this week in the interest of his business. He is a clever gentleman and we hope he did well.

J. B. Hatfield, who left Dahlonega for Monticello a few days ago, is now doing business for Dr. Greene of that place. His wife, who is here, will join him in a week or so.

Green Martin, who is doing business near the Big Joe mine in Hall county, was up last Monday to see if he could get a telephone office established at his store. Quite likely his request will be granted.

Go to Anderson & Jones to buy your clothing. They have just received a new line. Mens suits from three dollars up. Also boys suits for 13 up to 19 years old. Don't fail to give them a call before you buy. They will save you money.

The contractor who is digging the telephone holes from Dahlonega to Gainesville will about complete his work this week except where he has struck rock. The posts are being delivered on this end of the line and the stretching of the wire will begin soon.

A Dawson county fellow, who came up Monday to look after the interest of a blockader friend of his camped on the square near a pile of rock which had recently been hauled there. No doubt he believed it to be an Indian mound and dreamed about it during the night.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bruce left for Perry, Okla. last Tuesday. They will remain in the West a short while and then expect to return to Dahlonega and purchase property and build again for the purpose of making this their future home. Mr. Bruce says that he has his health better here than any where else is why he likes this section.

Mrs. Brilla Satterfield, nee Miss Brilla Davis, has a willow basket made by an Indian more than a hundred years ago. While Donaldson and Stringer were working on the bridge pillars near her residence last week she presented them with a curiosity which had been in the possession of the Davis family for many years. It was a couple of tortoise shells fastened to a belt, containing rock which was worn by the Indians during a dance, called bells. They make a considerable racket and have been used so much that the rock in them are perfectly alk.

Col. H. P. Farrow, of Gainesville, spent last Monday night in Dahlonega while on his way to Porter Springs. He goes up for the purpose of getting everything ready to open out his hotel by the 15th of June, if not a few days earlier, as he has received letters from persons requesting him to do so if possible. He will also contract for posts and have the holes dug for his telephone line to be extended from Dahlonega to the Springs. The Colonel says that he will stretch the wire himself, feeling confident that he can do it cheaper than $25 per mile, the amount paid by the Dahlonega Telephone Co. for the building of its line to Gainesville.

Work will begin at once on the Presbyterian church.

Col. Price went up to Cleveland last Wednesday.

More gentlemen are here this week looking after the mining interest.

A mechanic by the name of O'Kelly, from Hall county, moved to Dahlonega last Tuesday.

There will be some business changes in Dahlonega soon. Notice of which will hereafter be given.

Remember you can find sweet pickles, sour pickles, barrel pickles, bottle pickles, mixed and unmixed pickles at T. S. Copelands.

There is some talk of the Masonic fraternity selling out their property to the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co. and building a hall some where else.

Photographer Bruce and Clerk Wallace went across the Ridge Wednesday in search of trout. It was cold enough for them to be out sunning.

Mr. John A. Whitner, of Atlanta, was in Dahlonega this week in the interest of a fire insurance company which he represents. He went on up to Porter with Col. Farrow.

Some drunken man lost his jumpings last Monday night on Main street bridge. He was so sick that he couldn't hold his head over the railing. It looks like where a bucket of white wash had been overturned.

Mrs. Goodrum was stricken with paralysis at the residence of W. J. Worley last Sunday morning while at the breakfast table whose death is expected at any time. She was naturally old and feeble and has not spoken a word since.

The new Presbyterian church is to be erected in the northern part of town near where the place is expected to build up most. They have not yet enough money to complete the structure but we are satisfied that the progressive citizens just coming in will do their part.

"Georgia's greatest need in the present crisis" will be the subject of Rev. D. M. Edwards' discourse next Sunday morning, at the Methodist church. Mr. Edwards has some ideas that investigation and thought along the line indicated have produced that will be interesting and helpful, if heeded, at this time. He has been requested to speak on the subject indicated.

One day this week a couple of young ladies approached Bill Anderson at his shop and asked the negro if he was the one that could remove warts. "Yes 'um!" was the quick reply. A couple of hands containing warts were stuck out to the negro. Bill picked up a little piece of paper, gave the warts a rub or two and blew his breath on them. "Be gone in a few days," remarked the negro, at the same time telling them that it was worth ten cents. They handed him the money and walked out. If the ladies never marry until the warts disappear they will remain single a long time.

A few weeks ago a certain married woman in Dahlonega acted so badly that her husband left her and went to the mountains. She claimed that he was too intimate with her sister and swore out a warrant and had them brought back ten miles through the mud and rain and put in jail. They both made bond and he left the county and got employment. Then the woman took in one of the worst characters ever in Dahlonega and are located in a building beyond Crane's Hill belonging to the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co., with doors thrown open to the public, keeping one of the worst houses known in less than half a mile from the court house. Are our city fathers going to tolerate it? It is no secret to them for the marshal told us that he peeped through a crack and saw the women entertaining visitors last Monday night. If it wasn't for the children some one ought to put a sufficient amount of dynamite under the building to blow the concern up.

Miss Carrie Harbison went down to Gainesville last Monday to visit relatives.

The college tower looks much better since it has received a new coat of paint.

Frank Meaders and Miss Amanda Cain made a flying visit to Ellijah last week.

The public well on this side of the court house should be put in fix for use or else filled up.

James M. Robinson has sold out his farm near Porter Springs to Smith Bros. of that place.

A little two months old child of Sam Coldwell of this county was found dead in the bed one morning last week.

James Rider after being sick for about twelve months, died at his home in Hightower district one day last week aged about 75.

G. W. Bruce vacated the house he recently sold to the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co. and gave possession last Saturday and moved down to the Cook farm.

J. H. Moore has been appointed agent for the Dahlonega Telephone Co. who is empowered to contract for posts and perform such other duties as is necessary to push the work forward.

At the illicit distillery destroyed in Dawson county last Saturday Jud Wehant was discovered running off from the concern by the officers. He has since been arrested and given bond.

We understand that it is quite likely that the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co. will purchase the Bassenger building. This is one of the prettiest places and most elegantly finished residences in Dahlonega.

A year or two ago a lot of notes were taken from defendants for fines imposed by the mayor, some of which we learn have never been paid. The question now is who will pay taxes on them. According to law all notes are taxable.

C. M. Ferguson has killed three rattlesnake pilots on his farm this season. The last one he killed was lying out in the sun enjoying a nap with a tortoise. There seems to be a good many of these dangerous reptiles this year. One was killed down at Judge Brittan's farm a few days ago which came out of the rock chimney.

Last Sunday night a row occurred between Charlie Roberts and his father, which resulted in Charlie being put up in the lock up where he spent the night. It seems that they fell out about the division of some liquor. Cases were made against both for disorderly conduct but when the hour for the trial arrived the father was absent and could not be found, and the investigation was postponed to see whether the old man put in his appearance or not.

Capt. Adams and Ingersoll, of the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co., will have their offices in the Bruce house and the secretary will occupy the new office at the store. Later on when the company gets possession of the Brooksher building the grocery department of the mercantile business will be kept in the same. A porch will be built to this store house next to the commissary and the fence moved back so as to give more street room. Other improvements will be made about the premises so as to add much to the convenience and appearance of the place.

Since the last term of the Superior court a certain young man has been arrested who is charged with having liquor or drinking it at a place of worship. He stated to us the other day that he was going about his business when he met the preacher who persuaded him to go back to the church and helped to drink part of his liquor before getting there. Besides this the defendant says that he has drank with this preacher before who would go to the church as "full as a tick" and get up and preach. All of this will become publicly known at the trial. If it is true such men as this should not be allowed to get up in the pulpit.

French candies, crackers, ginger snaps, lemons, &c., at Copelands.

The sound of the hammer and saw now makes delightful music in Dahlonega.

Just received a lot of new hats, flowers and colored silk laces at E. W. Stricklands.

John Marlow has a copper cent larger than a quarter of a dollar which was made in 1827.

Nearly everybody who could get any way to go either went to Yellow Creek or Yahoola meeting last Sunday.

Nearly everybody is busy getting ready for commencement and the bed bugs are shown no more mercy than Sam Holt.

Too much praise cannot be given Prof. Stewart president of the N. G. A. College, for the noble work which he is doing for this grand institution.

The well filled advertising columns of the Nugget by the home merchants and business men attest the fact that it is an advertising medium that brings results to advertisers.

Merchant, join in with the rest of the business men of Dahlonega and advertise in the Nugget. Help us and we will help you in encouraging the people of your county to trade at home.

Remember that we care nothing for your patronage unless you wish to pay us. You need not expect the Nugget unless you want to pay the money or country produce at a reasonable price.

Our life long friend J. A. Howard moved his family to Gainesville last Monday. Johnnie has a permanent job in the post office at that place. He is a good citizen and we regret to give him up.

Some hands are engaged in sweeping and cleaning off the streets. A lot of rock which had been hauled on the public square will be removed. This gives employment and keeps the people's money in circulation.

Any reliable information concerning the mines of Lumpkin and adjoining counties will be thankfully received. Falsehoods are not desired. Give just such reports that you can show to be correct should a person come for an investigation.

We have added to our exchange list the Wiregrass Blade, owned and published by Geo. H. Bell, an old Dahlonega student, down at Swainsboro, Ga. It is a wide awake up to date weekly paper, one which the citizens of that city should feel proud of.

Lumpkin county once had a bank which was located at Auraria many years ago during the first gold excitement in this section. The next one will be established at Dahlonega and her progressive movement will insure its permanency.

One of our exchanges says that the "hot weather has stopped the marrying business." This is true. A certain young man of Davis' district came in more than three weeks ago and secured his license but has never married yet, though he still enjoys the company of the young lady and attends all the big meetings just the same. This is the happiest part of his life and if he knew what many unmarried men do he would remain single.

Boon Crawford, U. S. Dept. Collector, who now has his headquarters at Gainesville, came up last Friday to see his old friends and make new acquaintances. He extended his visit down into Dawson county Saturday and called on a Mr. Percelle who was engaged in making a little mountain dew in a rude cabin out in a lonesome valley. Boon was so clever that he tore the structure down, leaving a nice site for a new building of a more modern style, and had the operator to come to town with Deputy Marshal Grizzle and call on Com. Baker, who was so well pleased with his appearance that he gave him a way bill so as to enable him to see Judge Newman in Atlanta at an early day.

You will find local matter on fourth page.

Dahlonega has been visited by a blind piano tuner this week.

The progressive march is the order of the day in Dahlonega.

The daily mail from here to Porter Springs commences Thursday next.

Capt. F. M. Williams is receiving lumber to build a cottage on his property beyond Crane's Hill.

Miss Emma Martin, who has been attending college here for some time left for her home last Monday.

Corn will be much cheaper this fall no doubt as Col. Baker and councilman McGuire have turned their attention to farming.

T. S. Waters, of Gainesville, came in Monday to see us and while in the office dropped a silver dollar in the slot.

Last Monday morning the weather was unusually cool for the time of year which came near freezing out Geo. Sissum's lemonade stand. The thermometer registered 54.

Smith Bro's, of Porter Springs, are fixing to do a bigger business this summer than ever before. Watch for their ad which will appear in a few days, then you will be sure to understand all about it.

We understand that some of the Gainesville people hoot at the idea of Dahlonega having a railroad. Never mind. If Gainesville endeavors to throw any obstacle in the way Dahlonega can connect with some other point above that place.

The recently purchased town property by the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co., will be greatly improved in the near future by extending the street running by H. D. Gurley's store through the Bruce property and putting up good, nice substantial buildings on the corner of each lot.

Since Manuel Howell was convicted and fined for selling liquor in Dahlonega the old negro has put away this overcoat and can't be induced to even smell of an empty bottle. He promised Judge Estes if he would be merciful "this time" that he would not do so any more. There are others who will be in the same fix next court if they don't suspend business pretty soon.

The first exchange we pick up after the mail arrives on Friday is the Gainesville Eagle. It always contains interesting news gotten up in a lively manner, besides this Bro. Craig is one of our old time friends, saying nothing of the enjoyment we have had in hunting for birds on Tan Yard branch when he used to be in Dahlonega more than a quarter of a century ago—long before he was old enough to wear a bee gum hat.

Everybody who attended Yahoola meeting last Sunday behaved themselves. There was no drinking indulged in and the number of bad women in attendance did nothing to disturb the minister or act in a manner so as to attract attention but all behaved nicely. The weather had been dry for some time and crops needing rain badly, but the conduct was so good on this occasion that it pleased the Lord and He sent a refreshing shower soon after the meeting closed.

James McGee, who we mentioned as having been arrested last week, charged with breaking into Grace postoffice and stealing a lot of stamped envelopes, had a trial before Com. Baker after we had gone to press, was bound over and sent to jail in default of a five hundred dollar bond. Miss Charity Stringer, a sister of John Stringer, is postmistress. When Jim was arrested and some of the envelopes found in his trunk and asked where he got them stated that he bought them from John Stringer's son after telling that he had gotten them from the assistant postmaster at Dahlonega, but at the trial he made no statement whatever. He was carried to Atlanta on Monday.

One of our contractors had to send to Gainesville and secure some of her carpenters for a few days.

Merchant M. J. Williams went down to Gainesville last Monday on business accompanied by his wife.

Miss Estelle Harris, of Hall county, and her brother Charlie of Jackson, came on a visit to Dahlonega first of the week.

All the college ground is in cultivation now except that which is necessary for drilling purposes. It makes a right pretty little farm.

A young man came into town last Monday and swapped his pistol for a fiddle. If all young men would do this there would be more music and less trouble.

During the match game of base ball last Monday Frank Webb, the catcher for the cadet team got one of his fingers broken, while Alvin Wheelchel, a spectator, had his nose broken.

It seems that Bush, the Englishman from London, who cut such a high figure in spending the Georgia British Co's money, made way with nine thousand dollars, which has been ascertained by Mr. Crawford since his visit to this country, so we are informed.

Mrs. James Jones, formerly of Lumpkin county died in Cobb a few days ago. In the year 1884 Mr. Jones moved his family to that county. Not long afterwards he died. Since that time two of his daughters have died and now the mother has passed away.

Capt. Hall is having the Dock Hope house put in tip-top shape. The front porch has been torn away and one added to the end. The fence has been put back on the line and the well which was on the street will be filled up—another one has already been dug in the lot.

John Butler has been engaged this week in having a hundred telephone posts cut on the Dahlonega C. G. M. Co's property near the camp ground. It is quite a considerable distance to haul them but the farmers are too busy to get them and the this company is very much interested and is willing to do anything it can to press forward the movement.

Some of the ladies of Dahlonega are speaking of making a lot of cushions and presenting them to the members of the "sons of rest," who occupy the hard benches in front of the court house beneath the mulberry tree. They think that it will be cheaper to make cushions than to patch their pants. Ladies certainly know how to use economy unless it is when they go to buy a hat to wear.

Blockaders keep an eye to their interests the same as those engaged in any other business. Soon after the game of base ball closed last Monday afternoon one was on hand and after dark, so we are informed, some of the winners went out and brought in the refreshments by the jugful and all enjoying the evening very much. Let it be understood, however, that the Gainesville boys were not the only ones who participated for we have men here in Dahlonega who love liquor as well as any other people. Two of the members didn't leave until in the afternoon.

At the request of the college base ballers the Gainesville team came up last Monday and participated in a match game in which the latter defeated the former by 54 to 17. The college team defraying all the expenses (except refreshments) amounting to about $30. Of course after the game the college boys felt a little "sore" at the other boys eating fried chicken, custards, canned fruit pies and jellies at their expense, but they took it in a good humor. No doubt it is best for them that they were defeated, and cause them to give their studies more attention and enable them to advance more rapidly. An education is worth more to a young man than all the base ball "honors" that can be heaped upon him during life.

Local Dots.

If you wish to get a good price for your produce bring it to Dah-lonega.

The demand for lumber in Dah-lonega causes the saw mill men to wear a pleasant smile.

We want none but paying subscribers to the Neugier. Dead hands are no benefit to us nor any one else.

Those owing J. B. Edwards anything will find it to their interest to read his notice elsewhere and govern themselves accordingly.

There is no trouble for laborers to get work in Dah-lonega now and if a man owes anything and fails to pay it it is because he is too lazy to work.

Our Lumpkin county readers will find the article, "Truth Stranger than Fiction" on the other page interesting and wonder who the parties are.

Next Tuesday some of the most valuable gold mining property in Lumpkin county will be sold—at sheriff's sale, but by Mr. Bigbee under a certain process of law.

Used to when the college first began the music for the commencement were not so expensive. Then we could sit and listen and be content at hearing a fiddle and a guitar. Now it takes one of Uncle Sam's bands at an expense of about $150 to please us. This is certainly a progressive age.

There will be preaching again next Sunday at Pleasant Ridge Church. This is the place where lude women have been congregating and setting bad enough for the devil to catch them alive, but so far he has either been too busy attending to others to look after them or is neglecting his duty. The minister who attends this church was in our office last week and stated that he had selected persons to watch out for all bad conduct hereafter with a view of prosecuting every one who misbehaves.

We are glad to learn that business will soon open up again at Jay. Capt. Adams, president of the Dah-lonega C. G. M. Co., went out a few days ago to look after the company's interest in that direction, expressing his surprise at the amount of valuable machinery belonging to the same, which has been idle so long. The company owns one of the best saw mills, single machines, other valuable machinery and one of the biggest tanneries in this country. All of which will be put into operation at an early day. The postoffice will be re-established and Jay will again be the lively and progressive place it was some years ago.

It seems that the members of the country churches keep a more watchful eye over each other than they do in town. Not long ago a member of one of those churches got on a drunk while in town. He was perfectly peacable and misbehaved in no manner but had broken one of the rules of the house of God which he belonged to. The rest of his flock got together and appointed one of their number to come to town—a distance of ten miles—for the purpose of making an investigation. How different it is here. You scarcely ever hear of a member being turned out. Just as long as they come up with their dues they seem to be all right. Not many months ago a certain married woman belonging to a church here in town created a sensation by her husband catching up with her making love to another man and a separation followed. The matter was brought before her church. A committee was appointed to investigate the matter. One of her love letters (an up-to-date document) written to the man was in the possession of the committee, besides other damaging evidence. Notwithstanding all this proof they decided to allow her to remain in full fellowship, while two juries believed the testimony was sufficient for a divorce to be granted. This is only referred to in order to show how much more stricter the country churches are in their rules and regulations than those in town.
